

southwestern.edu

Art Scholarships

~3 minutes

updated November 24, 2025

The Sarofim Scholarship in Studio Art is awarded to students who demonstrate talent and a strong desire for growth in the field of studio art. The application process includes a thorough review of the applicant's portfolio by our faculty. We highly encourage prospective students to submit a portfolio through our online process; once submitted, an individual virtual portfolio review will be scheduled with you.

It's important to note that portfolio reviews are not mandatory for admission into the Studio Art major at Southwestern. However, candidates who are awarded the Sarofim Scholarship may also be eligible for additional financial assistance through other Southwestern scholarships.

Sarofim Scholarships in Studio Art are for Studio Art majors only.

Prospective students interested in applying for a Sarofim Scholarship and pursuing a major in Studio Art may do so through the portfolio submission process, no later than February 10, 2026 (earlier submission is highly encouraged, particularly for prospective majors; late submissions will be considered on a case-by-case basis).

PORTFOLIO REVIEW REQUIREMENTS

Process for Studio Art Portfolio Review

1. Register for a portfolio review
2. Submit the portfolio review application
3. Complete your individually scheduled virtual portfolio review

SAVE THE DATE! Scholarship recipients will also be invited to our Sarofim School of Fine Arts Scholarship Celebration Day on March 1, where you will meet faculty and staff, tour studios and fine arts facilities, attend workshops and lectures, connect with current and prospective students, and learn more about the School of Fine Arts. Participation in this even may also make you eligible for additional scholarship funds.

Candidates who receive the Sarofim Scholarship in Studio Art may also be eligible for additional assistance, including Southwestern merit scholarships.

Contact

For any questions regarding portfolio reviews please send an email to FineArtsAdmissions@southwestern.edu.

APPLY TO SOUTHWESTERN NOW