

and upcoming (climate) Change in ten specific zones, areas or urban enclaves of Athens – all exemplary locations of resistance, flux or genesis of urban transformation. How do contemporary theories of urbanism measure up against these places? What can design do to affect a city's future? What new spaces, architectures, structures and environments emerge at the edge of the crisis and the wake of even greater challenges? The course is structured in lectures, student presentations and a number of walks. Students document their research in papers, maps & media. Fall and Spring Semesters. (URBS 371, URBS 471)

RENEW & RISE: CLIMATE ACTION AND FAIR ENERGY POLICIES. The "Climate & Fair Energy Transition Summer School" is a comprehensive four-week program designed to equip participants with the knowledge and skills necessary to navigate the complexities of modern energy transitions. Coordinated by the Institute of Energy Development & Transition to Post-Lignite Era and the Laboratory of Energy Transition & Development Transformation (ENTRA Lab), this course emphasizes a multifaceted approach to addressing climate change and ensuring equitable energy policies.

The course focuses on the paradigm shift from fossil fuels to renewable energy sources, exploring the broader implications of this transition. It integrates perspectives from climate justice, policy frameworks, and community engagement to provide a holistic understanding of energy transitions. The curriculum covers historical injustices, the need for equitable policy measures, and the importance of inclusive approaches that recognize the voices of marginalized communities.

The primary aim of the summer school is to empower participants to become leaders and advocates for a just energy transition. The course seeks to ensure that the move towards renewable energy sources not only addresses the urgent need to mitigate climate change but also promotes social justice and equity. Participants will be equipped with the skills to develop and implement inclusive and participatory energy policies that integrate climate justice principles. Summer Session. (URBS 375, URBS 475)

INTERNSHIP (Academic or Experiential). CYA offers academic or experiential virtual internships. CYA places and oversees students in various multifaceted internships related to communications, business, tourism, cultural heritage management, social and economic research institutes, the environmental sector, health sector, NGOs that provide support for marginalized populations, museums, libraries, and theater and the arts. Students are supervised by a professional at the location of the internship as well as by a CYA faculty member. Up to 240 contact hours. Must be taken P/F. Fall, Spring, Winter and Summer. CENTER FOR INTEGRATIVE LEARNING

The Center for Integrative Learning supports community-engaged learning, academic internships, faculty-mentored research, and study abroad as high-impact experiences designed to foster integrative learning and public-facing work across a variety of experiences.

ACADEMIC & FUNDED INTERNSHIPS

Internships give students the opportunity to gain valuable applied experience, learn essential skills, develop leadership traits, and make connections in professional fields that can lead to successful career trajectories after graduation. All majors have the opportunity to complete an internship for experience, academic credit, and/or funding in a wide range of areas.

Academic Internship - Students complete reflective assignments, and work with a Southwestern faculty member, who provides mentorship, as they earn academic credit for the time they invest in gaining hands-on, high impact internship experience in a professional setting.

Funded Internships - Students have the opportunity to apply for funding for the summer semester to help offset the costs of unpaid and low-paying internships through a rigorous application process managed by the Internship Office. Students participating in the SU London Program can apply for funding for the fall semester, and students participating in the New York Arts Program or Capitol Hill Internship Program can apply for funding for fall and spring semesters.

Health Professions Experiences

Prospective pre-medical and other pre-health students have the opportunity to gain invaluable hands-on training in hospital settings through health professions experiences. These high impact experiences give students exposure to healthcare environments, which provide insight into various healthcare roles, and allow them to learn from and receive mentorship from experienced professionals. Through these programs students receive invaluable preparation for medical school and a variety of healthcare careers.

St. David's Shadowing Program - Students may apply to participate in a 10-week shadowing program offered during the fall and spring semesters at St. David's Hospital in Georgetown. In this program, students spend four-hours a week shadowing nurses, physicians, and technicians in the following hospital areas: emergency, endoscopy, laboratory, outpatient surgery, radiology, rehabilitation, surgery, and women's services.

Houston Methodist Willowbrook Observership Program - This 4-week summer observership program gives students the opportunity to observe daily operations in a clinical setting at Houston Methodist Willowbrook Hospital. Through this program students have exposure to a healthcare environment, gain insight into various health-related career paths, receive first-hand learning from experienced professionals, and participate in networking opportunities. Available rotations for this program include: Internal medicine, Family practice, OBGYN, Cardiology, Neurology, Orthopedics and sports medicine, and Outpatient therapies.

Houston Methodist Willowbrook Internship Program - This 8-week summer internship program allows students to explore career paths in healthcare administration while being fully immersed in the daily hospital operations at Houston Methodist Willowbrook Hospital. Students receive training from healthcare administrators and leaders while they gain practical experience, acquire business acumen, develop new skills, and participate in networking opportunities. The program incorporates the following immersive rotations: Center for innovation, Process improvement, Strategic planning, Quality and clinical research, Spiritual care, Orthopedics and sports medicine, and Patient experience.

COMMUNITY-ENGAGED LEARNING

Often called "learning by doing," community-engaged learning (CEL) allows students to apply academic skills and knowledge to address a community need, issue, or problem and to connect those experiences back to academic coursework. CEL is a form of teaching and learning in which students engage in structured community service and action that is responsive to community needs, provides mutually beneficial experience for students and community partners, and is designed to include critical analysis and reflection linking service to academic learning goals.

CEL courses are designated on Self Service, and students can also contact the Director of Public Engagement (Cullen 150 Suite) for a complete listing. Students seeking Paideia with Distinction can choose to take a CEL course as one of their two distinctive Paideia experiences.

FACULTY-MENTORED RESEARCH

Faculty-mentored research at Southwestern provides opportunities to work alongside a faculty member and to make original intellectual or creative contributions to an academic discipline. Participation in faculty-mentored research has been shown to help students develop critical thinking, problem-solving skills, and creativity in addition to better equipping students for graduate school or future career endeavors.

At Southwestern, faculty-mentored research takes on several different forms, including (but not limited to):

King Creativity Fund - Students can apply for funding to support "innovative and visionary projects" outside of the classroom. Grants range from a few hundred to a few thousand dollars.

Southwestern Undergraduate Research with Faculty (SURE) - Students spend up to eight summer weeks conducting full-time research or a portion of the semester working hourly during the academic year alongside Southwestern faculty mentors in a variety of different disciplines from all areas of the university to further scholarship and creative work in their fields.

The Research and Creative Works Symposium is a celebration of student work. This annual event showcases academic accomplishments through poster presentations, art exhibits and performances, panel discussions, and oral presentations.

STUDY ABROAD PROGRAMS

Students may choose from a variety of options for study abroad, all of which offer rigorous academic programs coupled with international experience. Additionally, these programs take advantage of course offerings and facilities not normally available on Southwestern's campus.

Students must work with the Office of Study Abroad and International Student Services (SAISS) to ensure that an appropriate program of study is selected. In general, it is suggested that students make an initial appointment with SAISS at least two semesters before the planned period of study abroad.

Southwestern maintains a list of approved study abroad programs that address the curricular and pedagogical concerns, as well as the academic standards, associated with a Southwestern liberal arts education. The Director of Study Abroad and International Student Services, in cooperation with the International Programs Committee, reviews programs to create a list, subject to ongoing evaluation, of accepted/approved programs. Students may submit a petition to study on a non-approved program offering specialized curricular opportunities that are not afforded by any of the programs on the approved list. Students wishing to propose such an opportunity should work with the Office of Study Abroad and International Student Services. Approval for such proposals is made on an individual basis and does not in any way indicate that future proposals for study on that given program would also be approved.

Students applying for off-campus academic experiences (including internships, study abroad programs or other semester- or year-long off-campus study) must be in good disciplinary standing and good academic standing at the time of application (defined as a 2.000 cumulative grade point average). Students are not eligible to participate if they have already graduated, which means that students may need to postpone graduation in order to participate in study abroad. Additional details regarding general eligibility requirements for study abroad/study away are provided on the SAISS website:
<https://www.southwestern.edu/study-abroad/apply-now/>

Representing Southwestern

Students who study abroad/study away are considered representatives of Southwestern University, and as such, are held to high standards of behavior, professional attitude, and interpersonal preparedness and maturity. The University reserves the right to deny acceptance to any applicant for any reason the University determines to be material to the applicant's participation in study abroad/away. The University further reserves the right to revoke a student's acceptance at any time.

London Semester

A semester program in London is offered each fall. The current program enables up to around 30 students and two Southwestern faculty members to live and study together in London. In addition to courses offered by Southwestern faculty, a British Life and Culture course is taught by a local British faculty member and is required for all students. The course also includes field trips in London and the UK. Students may also complete an academic internship experience. Southwestern undergraduates who have achieved sophomore standing before the start of the program are eligible to apply for the London Semester Program provided they are in good academic and disciplinary standing and do not have an outstanding balance with the university. Applications are evaluated on the basis of the student's academic record and potential, the way in which the program relates to the student's overall educational objectives, and the student's maturity and ability to be a good representative of Southwestern University. Students who participate in the London Semester program pay Southwestern tuition, Brown-Cody housing and the full board plan. Most financial aid is applicable to the London Semester program, including Southwestern merit and need-based aid, and is available to qualified students. Other outside loan options may also be available. Courses may not be taken as Pass/D/F.

Exchange Programs

As a member of the International Student Exchange Program (ISEP), Southwestern University is able to exchange several students annually with over 200 universities in Europe, Asia, Africa, Oceania, and the Americas. Students who participate in the ISEP Exchange program pay Southwestern tuition, Brown-Cody housing and the full board plan. Most financial aid is applicable to the ISEP exchange program, including Southwestern merit and need-based aid, and is available to qualified students. Other outside loan options may also be available. Southwestern University also offers a limited number of bilateral exchanges, including one in Mexico City. Costs vary and most financial aid is applicable.

College Year in Athens

Southwestern University is the School of Record institution for the College Year in Athens (CYA) Program. Please see the College Year in Athens section of this catalog for course descriptions. Southwestern University students may participate in this program. They should meet with the Office of Study Abroad and International Student Services for advising and application details.

Additional Study Abroad Opportunities

In addition to the London Semester and exchange programs, students may choose to study through a program approved by Southwestern University. These opportunities are numerous and allow students a wide variety of choice in terms of program type, location and duration. Students should contact the Office of Study Abroad and International Student Services (SAISS) to receive information and advice regarding participation in these programs.

In order to ensure that students choose an appropriate program, study abroad participants are required to work through SAISS to complete the application and cross-cultural preparation for a study abroad experience. SAISS acts as liaison to all other administrative offices on campus, and students must communicate with the office in order to facilitate credit transfer and financial aid distribution. Students should begin working with SAISS staff two semesters before the planned period abroad. Students must complete the Southwestern study abroad application in addition to specific program application materials.

The Southwestern Study Abroad application deadlines are:

September 1	Spring ISEP Exchange
-------------	----------------------

October 1	Spring Program Providers, Spring New York Arts Program, Spring Capitol Hill Internship Program
December 1	SU Summer Faculty-led Programs
February 1	Summer Program Providers and Fall/Academic Year ISEP exchange, Fall New York Arts Program
March 1	Fall/Academic Year Program Providers, SU London Fall Semester, Fall Capitol Hill Internship Program

Summer Study Abroad

Southwestern University also offers summer faculty-led programs in various parts of the world. Programs in recent years have traveled to Argentina, Belize, Europe, The Netherlands, Spain, and Switzerland. Courses cannot be taken as Pass/D/F.

Transfer of Credit

A foreign study program for which a student expects to receive and transfer credit from another institution requires previous approval by the appropriate department chair and the Director of Study Abroad and International Student Services. In cases where students do not register for courses until arrival at the study abroad site, students must complete the credit transfer process within three weeks of their return to Southwestern University, and it is highly recommended that students communicate about their course schedule and associated transfer credit while pursuing the program abroad. In addition, Southwestern must receive official transcripts from the institution awarding the credit. For determining transfer credits for participation in the foreign study programs of other universities, Southwestern adheres in general to the "Policy Statement on Study Abroad Programs" approved by the Federation of Regional Accrediting Commissions of Higher Education (FRACHE). The acceptance of credit from foreign study programs sponsored by other American institutions of higher learning will be judged on an individual basis according to the following standards: 1) the program has been approved by the appropriate department chair and the Office of the Registrar at Southwestern; 2) the program was supervised by a regionally accredited institution; 3) the student was regularly matriculated in an institution of higher learning during participation in the program; and 4) the program was primarily a college program and not a mixed high school-college program. Students may transfer up to 19 credits for each approved study abroad semester. Typically, students earn 15-16 credits for work completed during the semester abroad.

OFF-CAMPUS STUDY WITHIN THE UNITED STATES

New York Arts Program (NYAP)

This program, offered during the fall and spring semesters, is designed to provide any eligible student seriously interested in the performing, visual, communication and media arts with an opportunity to serve as an intern and to experience the world of established professionals in various arts and media organizations relevant to their academic interests. The cultural resources of New York City are well known. Less familiar is the artist's milieu, that mix of people, places and events which constitute the artist's environment, world and immediate audience. Qualified students accepted into the program spend a semester sharing this milieu with professionals representing all professional creative fields: visual artists, designers, museum curators, performing artists, authors, publishers, filmmakers, people in theatre and communication arts, etc. Each student is assigned a faculty advisor who works closely with them from their time of acceptance to the program through the duration of the semester, providing mentorship during their internship experience, and helping them navigate and thrive in NYC. Students also participate in a specially designed seminar course conducted by arts professionals, including NYAP staff and faculty, on various topics, and enjoy a robust visiting artist lecture series offered throughout the semester. Program offices are housed in Manhattan, conveniently located in the heart of midtown, and students live in program housing in Brooklyn. No Southwestern University funding is available for this program. Stafford Loans and Pell Grants are available to qualified students. Other outside loan options may also be available. Please contact the Internship Office for further information.

Capitol Hill Internship Program (CHIP)

Southwestern has established cooperative relations with the United Methodist College Washington Consortium, which allows students to apply to participate in the Capitol Hill Internship Program offered every fall and spring semester. This internship and academic program gives students the opportunity to complete political science course work, while interning in any industry in Washington, D.C. for a semester. Depending upon the student's interest, they can apply to intern at the White House, on Capitol Hill, in the courts, with public interest groups, in the private sector, or with a variety of other non-profit or public institutions/organizations. Students may earn up to 15 credits, which are transcribed by Southwestern University. The cost of the program is equal to Southwestern tuition, Brown-Cody housing and the unlimited board plan. Most financial aid is applicable to the Capitol Hill Internship Program, including Southwestern merit and need-based aid, and is available to qualified students in any major. Other outside loan options may also be available.

ADMISSION AND FINANCIAL INFORMATION

ADMISSION PROCEDURES

Those interested in studying at Southwestern University must apply to the University through the Office of Admission. The University admits those students most able to successfully complete a degree program, make positive contributions to the overall life of the Southwestern community and become productive citizens following graduation. Admission is selective and involves a thorough review of each candidate's academic and personal qualifications.

Requirements for Admission

Students who graduate from accredited high schools may be admitted if their academic records, recommendations and other application elements indicate promise of success at Southwestern. Southwestern University strongly recommends that all students present a minimum of 18 academic units from their secondary school work. In addition to graduation from an accredited high school, it is strongly recommended that students present four years of English, four years of mathematics, four years of social science and/or history, three years of science, two years of a foreign language, and one year of an academic elective from the above-mentioned areas. Southwestern's academic merit scholarship requirements normally require the same 18 academic unit foundation for consideration.

Applicants may submit the SAT or the ACT as part of their admission and merit scholarship review or may choose to apply test score optional and participate in the required interview for test optional students. Testing is optional for all populations and for all scholarships; an interview will be required in its place.

Applicants are invited to submit, with their application, any evidence that they think would help the Admission Committee reach its decision on eligibility for admission, including creative samples and written statements to supplement the required essay. A personal interview is required in some cases and strongly recommended for all. Candidates for admission are considered based on their total record—academic as well as extracurricular - although a strong academic record is always necessary.

Applicants are responsible for ensuring the arrival of all materials necessary to complete their application, including transcripts and recommendation from a teacher, counselor, or school official. Applicants are responsible for checking their personal admission portal or contacting the Office of Admission to determine whether or not their file is complete prior to deadline dates.

Those who plan to major in fine arts are encouraged to have an audition/interview/portfolio review prior to admission to their respective curricula. A formal audition/portfolio review is required for fine arts scholarships and may be required for entry into certain majors.

Any questions in regard to admission decisions can be directed to the Assistant Vice President of Admission.

FIRST YEAR APPLICATION OPTIONS

Early Admission

A few students may be admitted each year following their junior year in high school. In these cases, the candidate is expected to have an outstanding academic record, acceptable test score results and the maturity to enter college without the senior year of high school. A personal interview is required.

Early Decision

Students for whom Southwestern is their clear first choice may apply under Early Decision. Southwestern must receive the application and all supporting documents by the first Tuesday of November of the student's senior year in high school. If admitted the enrollment, orientation and housing deposit will be due by the first Tuesday of January. A need based financial aid package will be presented to the student prior to the required deposit date, assuming the FAFSA or other required financial documents have been received by December 1. If the student accepts the offer of admission, applications to all other schools must be withdrawn at that time and no other applications may be submitted to other schools.

Early Action

Southwestern provides an Early Action option for students who consider the institution to be one of their top choices, but who also wish to consider other admission offers before making a final decision. The application deadline is the first Tuesday of December of the student's senior year in high school. Admission decisions will be made by the first Tuesday in March. For those students admitted, normal financial aid and candidate reply deadlines will apply: March 1 to submit the FAFSA or other required financial documents and the first Tuesday in May to accept or decline the offer to enroll. Some application decisions may be deferred to Regular Decision when additional items are required by the Admission Committee (e.g., interview, 7th semester grades, etc.) in order to complete the file.

Regular Decision

Regular Decision is the third admission option for students considering Southwestern University. The application deadline is the first Tuesday in February of the senior year of high school, with final admission decisions made by the first Tuesday in May. Financial aid and candidate reply deadlines are the same as mentioned above in Early Action.

First Year Application Deadlines

	Application Deadline	Notification	Reply Date
Early Decision:	First Tuesday in November	First Tuesday in December	First Tuesday in January
Early Action:	First Tuesday in December	First Tuesday in March	First Tuesday in May
Regular Decision:	First Tuesday in February	First Tuesday in April	First Tuesday in May
Late Decision:	After the first Tuesday in February	April 15 or upon completion of the review process	First Tuesday in May

Required for Transfer Admission

Each year, Southwestern enrolls a limited number of transfer students. An overall grade point average of not (on a 4.0 scale) on all college work is typically expected; however, each candidate's potential for success at Southwestern is evaluated individually. Applicants are welcome to submit other information (in addition to those items mentioned under "Requirements for Admission" above) in order to assist the Committee in its review.

The College Conduct Report is required and must be completed by a college official(s) with access to a student's disciplinary record. In addition, transfer students must furnish official transcripts of high school and all college-level work attempted. All credits are accepted on the basis of the classification given that institution by its accreditation agency or agencies. Credits earned at non-accredited institutions are subject to re-evaluation on the basis of the quality of work done at Southwestern University. No grade below C- is accepted for transfer from another institution.

Credit Information

Some colleges have entered into cooperative programs with high schools whereby high school students may enroll in first-year college-level classes and receive college and high school credit concurrently. Southwestern will transfer these credits toward a degree, provided they meet the criteria in the preceding paragraph and are submitted to Southwestern on an official college transcript. A student graduating from high school just prior to their first semester of college will be considered a first-year student, regardless of credits earned under a concurrent enrollment program.

All entering transfer students must meet Southwestern's General Education Requirements common to all degrees set forth in this catalog (see "Degree Requirements"). Most transfer students need a minimum of four semesters worth of work to obtain a degree.

Veterans who have earned credits in approved military and service schools will be granted credit as indicated when such credit is appropriate to the degree programs of the students at Southwestern.

Non-Degree Seeking/Visiting Students

A student in good standing at another college may be considered for admission as a visiting (non-degree seeking) student. A visiting student application, along with official transcripts from all colleges attended, will be required of visiting students.

Non-degree seeking individuals interested in auditing a course should complete a visiting student application. Upon receipt of the application, the Admission office will consult with the instructor and the Registrar will determine if the class is audit-appropriate and has space for enrollment. Enrollment space is determined following the completion of the registration period for the course term. Non-degree seeking individuals pay a per-credit fee for the privilege of auditing a course. Individuals over the age of 50 pay a reduced fee. (See the Schedules of Special Fees and Deposits in the Catalog.) Courses designed to develop skills and that are "hands-on" in nature such as applied music, ensembles, studio art, or Fitness and Recreational Activity may not be taken as an audit.

Non-degree seeking minors (i.e. a high school graduate who is not, or will not, be 18 at some point during their first year at Southwestern) who audit courses, must agree to abide by the policies established in the Southwestern Student Handbook and must have their legal guardian sign a waiver allowing the use of the campus network and computing resources.

Readmission

Any student who previously attended Southwestern for at least one regular semester must file an application for readmission at least one month prior to the beginning of the semester for which the student is seeking readmission. Students will be readmitted on a first-come, first-served basis. A former student who has attended another institution is regarded as a readmit student and is subject to all rules governing readmit students.

If a student is dismissed or is ineligible to return (see Dismissal and Eligibility for Continuance) and is interested in readmission, the student will be required to complete a full-time semester (minimum of twelve (12) semester credits) of transferable college work from an accredited two- or four-year institution of higher learning and earn at least a 3.0 grade point average on a 4.0 scale.

Candidates for readmission will be reviewed by the Office of Admission, with academic and student life administration involvement to be sure each student returning is ready to successfully complete a Southwestern degree. Personal interviews in the Office of Admission are encouraged and will be required in some cases.

Other Admission Requirements Information

All college work for which an applicant has registered must be reported at the time of application. Applicants must present official transcripts of their entire academic record from all institutions in which they have been or are enrolled. Failure to make an accurate report of colleges attended will subject the student to disciplinary action, including possible suspension.

No person may register for, nor attend classes, unless the admission procedure has been completed.

Statement of Nondiscrimination

Southwestern University's recruitment and admission of students, awarding of financial aid and operation of programs and facilities are without regard to sex, race, color, religion, age, disability, national or ethnic origin, sexual orientation, gender identity/transgender status, or any other impermissible factor. Southwestern University is also committed to compliance with Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972, which prohibits sex discrimination in federally funded education programs and activities, including sexual misconduct. The Southwestern University Title IX Coordinator is Loren Galloway Bowens who can be reached at titleixcoordinator@southwestern.edu or by phone, 512-863-1111.

FINANCIAL AID

In a real sense, every student admitted to Southwestern receives financial aid; income from endowments and gifts pays a significant portion of the cost of each student's education. Tuition and fees pay the balance. Friends of the University have made additional funds available for financial assistance, which is granted on the basis of both merit and need. Students should direct inquiries concerning financial assistance to the Financial Aid Office. The University has scholarships, grants, work opportunities and loans to assist students in meeting financial needs for their college education. The University administers a variety of programs, including the following:

Federal programs: Federal Pell Grant, Federal Supplemental Educational Opportunity Grant, Federal Direct Stafford Loan (subsidized and unsubsidized), Federal College Work-Study, Federal Direct PLUS Loan.

State of Texas programs: Tuition Equalization Grant, College Access Loan.

For 2024-25 the Financial Aid Office administered more than $66 million in various kinds of financial aid for Southwestern students.

Students must reapply for all types of need-based financial assistance (scholarships, grants, work and loans) every year. To be considered for any type of need-based financial aid, current and prospective students should submit a Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) beginning October 1 for the following academic year. This application is available at www.studentaid.gov, and the priority deadline for submission is March 1.

Merit Scholarships

Southwestern University awards a variety of scholarships based on factors such as academic merit or talent in the fine arts. The eligibility criteria and dollar amount for each scholarship vary with each scholarship program. Information about available scholarship programs may be found on the Financial Aid Office website at www.southwestern.edu.

Grants

Grants are awarded on the basis of financial need as determined by the submission of a FAFSA. Students should apply by March 1st to be considered for any grant funding through Southwestern.

Work Opportunities

A number of students are employed by the University in part-time positions in University offices, the library, residence halls, the dining hall and other similar areas.

Loans and Financing Options

Southwestern offers a variety of loan programs and financing options to assist families in their efforts to meet educational expenses. Current information on these options is available from the Financial Aid Office or at www.southwestern.edu.

Texas Guaranteed Tuition Plan (formerly the Texas Tomorrow Fund)

Families who have participated in the Texas Guaranteed Tuition Plan/Texas Tomorrow Fund may use these funds as a credit toward payment of tuition. To take credit for this program, a family must provide both the Financial Aid Office and the Business Office with a copy of the plan ID card. Upon review of the card and the type of plan selected, the appropriate amount will be allowed as credit toward payment of each semester's bill.

Cost of Education

Students may receive a combination of sources and types of financial assistance that may not exceed the total cost of education, as determined by the Financial Aid Office. If a student receives a combination of aid funds that exceed the total cost of education, it will constitute an over-award. To remain in compliance with applicable federal, state and University regulations, the Financial Aid Office must make the appropriate adjustments to the student's aid package to eliminate the over-award. Such adjustments may include the reduction of scholarship or grant assistance previously awarded to the student.

Institutional Tuition Charges

Students may receive Southwestern scholarship and/or grant assistance up to the total amount of institutional tuition charges. If a student receives Southwestern scholarship and/or grant assistance that exceeds institutional charges, the Financial Aid Office must make the appropriate adjustments to the student's aid package to eliminate the condition. These adjustments may include the reduction of scholarship or grant assistance previously awarded to the student. In no case will a student receive any University funds in cash.

Full-Time Requirement

All scholarships and grants from the University require a student to enroll at the University on a full-time basis. If a student does not enroll on a full-time basis for a semester, then that student's University scholarship or grant will be canceled for that semester. Exceptions to this policy are made in the following circumstances:

- 1) Graduating seniors in their last semester, when that student is taking only enough courses to graduate at the end of that semester.
- 2) Students who are approved to attend on a part-time basis for medical reasons. Requests for part-time attendance of this type must be made through the Center for Academic Success.

In either of these cases, the University scholarship or grant is prorated based upon the number of credits in which the student enrolls.

Federal and state financial aid programs have their own regulations regarding full time attendance. Details regarding these regulations may be obtained in the Financial Aid Office.

Withdrawals

If a student withdraws from the University after the beginning of a semester for any reason, that student's financial aid for that semester is subject to being prorated based upon the withdrawal date. All scholarships, grants and loans are affected, including those from federal, state and university sources. Upon being notified of the student's withdrawal, the Financial Aid Office will review that student's financial aid record to determine what scholarships, grants and loans must be returned to the appropriate programs. If it is determined that funds must be returned, the student's account at the University will be updated to reflect the amount being returned to the program. The Financial Aid Office will send a written notice to the student's home address, detailing any reduction of the student's financial aid.

The amount of University funds to be returned is calculated based on the week in which the student withdrew. The refunds are determined as shown below:

	Percentage Returned to SU	Percentage Retained by Student
If the Withdraw Occurs:
During the first full week of classes	80%	20%
During the second full week of classes	60%	40%
During the third full week of classes	50%	50%
During the fourth full week of classes	40%	60%
During the fifth full week of classes	30%	70%
After the end of the fifth full week of classes	0%	100%

Federal and state programs have their own regulations pertaining to the calculation of the amount of funds that must be returned. Southwestern University evaluates withdrawn students in compliance with applicable federal and state regulations. Information about these regulations may be obtained in the Financial Aid Office.

Satisfactory Academic Progress (SAP) Policy for Financial Aid Eligibility

Students at Southwestern University are required to maintain satisfactory academic progress toward their degree in order to receive any financial aid (defined as federal, state, or institutional financial aid, to include merit scholarships, need-based scholarships, need based grants, loans, and federal/state work-study.) This progress is monitored using both qualitative and quantitative components of a student's academic work at Southwestern. To maintain good standing, a student must maintain the minimum levels defined for each component.

The qualitative component considers a student's cumulative grade point average (GPA) earned at Southwestern. Students must maintain a minimum cumulative GPA of 2.0 in their Southwestern University coursework.

The quantitative component considers the number of credits that are successfully completed by a student in comparison to the number of credits attempted by that student. This is also referred to as the pace of progression. Southwestern students must pass 80% of all credits attempted.

A course that is dropped during the period without record entry will not be considered as an attempted course. A course that is dropped after the period without record entry will be considered as attempted and not completed. Therefore, that course will count against a student's completion rate.

The Financial Aid Office will review academic progress at the end of each academic year. During each review, the student's cumulative qualitative and quantitative components will be considered, i.e., all SU grades and course credits attempted/earned by that student up to that point.

Maximum Time Frame

In addition to the qualitative and quantitative components, students must complete their degree at Southwestern within a certain number of credits. Students are allowed a maximum of 175 credits to complete their degree. Students who exceed the maximum credits will be considered ineligible for financial aid. All transfer credits will be counted toward the maximum time frame. All semesters of enrollment will be considered, including semesters where the student did not receive financial aid.

Failure to Meet the Standards of Satisfactory Academic Progress

A student who fails to meet the SAP standards will be declared ineligible to receive financial aid. That student's financial aid will be rescinded for the following semester. The student will remain ineligible for financial aid until (1) they attain the required SAP standards, or (2) they submit an appeal for reinstatement of financial aid eligibility and such a request is approved by the Financial Aid Appeals Committee (the "Committee").

The Financial Aid Office will send the student a written notification of the ineligibility, with information about how the student may submit an appeal to reinstate their financial aid eligibility.

When a student's financial aid eligibility is reinstated by the Committee, the student will be placed on a probation status for one semester. Students on probation will be placed on an academic plan determined by the Committee. During the probation semester the student will be eligible to receive financial aid. After the conclusion of the probation semester, the student's progress will be reevaluated. At that point, the student remains eligible to receive financial aid in the following semester if:

- 1) The student is meeting the SAP requirements; OR,
- 2) The Committee has determined that the student is successfully following the academic plan previously assigned to them.

If the student meets the SAP requirements after the probation semester, then they will be considered to be in good standing and will be eligible to receive financial aid in the following semester.

If the student does not meet the SAP standards after the probation semester, but the Committee has determined that the student is successfully following the academic plan assigned to them, then that student may continue receiving financial aid for the following semester.

If neither 1) or 2) are met, then that student will be considered ineligible for financial aid. The student's financial aid will be rescinded for the following semester. The student will remain ineligible for financial aid until they attain the required SAP standards. A student who is ineligible for financial aid but who is eligible to return to Southwestern may re-enroll but is responsible for paying their own expenses during the period of ineligibility.

Appeals

A student who is declared ineligible may submit an appeal to have their eligibility reconsidered. Appeals for reinstatement must be made in writing to the Financial Aid Appeals Committee. Appeals must be made by the deadline indicated on the written notice of ineligibility sent to the student. The written appeal must include (1) the reasons why the student failed to meet the SAP requirements, and (2) what has changed that will allow the student to meet the SAP standards at the next evaluation. A student may request that their academic records and any extenuating circumstances be reviewed. Special circumstances may include, but are not limited to: illness or injury of the student, death of a close family member or similar hardship circumstances, change in major, seeking to earn more than one major, or transfer credits not counting toward a degree.

When a student finishes the spring semester without meeting the minimum requirements, summer school work may be considered to restore eligibility by the following fall semester.

The Financial Aid Appeals Committee will consist of the Dean of Financial Aid, the Assistant Vice President for Admission, the Senior Director of the Center for Academic Success and Advising, and the Associate Vice President for Academic Affairs or their designate.

Dropped Courses

A course that is dropped during the period without record entry will not be considered as an attempted course. A course that is dropped after the period without record entry will be considered as attempted and not completed. Therefore, that course will count against a student's completion rate.

Readmitted Students

In order for a readmitted student to be eligible to receive financial aid that student must meet SAP standards at the time of readmission. If a student left the university in an ineligible status then that student is still required to attain the required SAP standards before becoming eligible to receive financial aid.

Transfer Students

A transfer student who enrolls at Southwestern will be considered to be maintaining satisfactory progress for their first academic year of their enrollment. At the end of a transfer student's first academic year of enrollment, progress will be reviewed in the same manner as for all other Southwestern students.

Transfer Credits and Credit by Exam

Credits earned through courses transferred from other institutions, through examination or testing (such as Advanced Placement (AP) or International Baccalaureate (IB) exams) or through dual credit programs, will be considered when determining a student's completion rate and maximum timeframe. Only the GPA earned on credits completed at Southwestern will be considered when evaluating the cumulative GPA.

CR/NC Grades

Grades of CR and NC will not have an impact on a student's grade point average, and therefore will not affect that aspect of a student's SAP status. When determining a student's completion rate, a course with a grade of CR will be considered to be successfully completed and the associated credits will be included in the numerator and denominator of the completion rate calculation. A course with a grade of NC will not be considered successfully completed, and the associated credits will only be included in the denominator of the completion rate calculation. When determining the maximum number of credits attempted, credits associated with a CR or an NC grade will be included as attempted credits.

Withdrawals

A student who withdraws from Southwestern after a semester has begun will have their satisfactory academic progress standing re-evaluated at the end of the academic year in which the withdrawal occurred. A student who was in good standing prior to the withdrawal will remain eligible to receive financial aid until their standing is re-evaluated. If a student withdraws from Southwestern while on financial aid probation, they will be immediately declared ineligible to receive financial aid and must submit an appeal to have their standing re-evaluated.

Incomplete Courses

A course in which a student receives an "incomplete" grade will be counted against the student's completion rate for the period being evaluated. An "incomplete" grade will not be included in calculating the cumulative GPA used for the period being evaluated. When the "incomplete" grade is replaced with a final grade in the course, that student's SAP status will be re-evaluated to determine their final standing.

Failed Courses

A course in which the student receives a failing grade will be considered toward the cumulative GPA, semester credits attempted, and whether a student is making satisfactory academic progress.

Repeated Courses

The credits attempted/earned for a repeated course will be considered toward the cumulative semester credits attempted/earned. The grade earned in the most recent satisfactory completion of the course will be included in the cumulative GPA.

Academic Progress Standards Unique to Individual Programs

This policy indicates minimal academic progress standards for students to receive financial aid. It should be noted, however, that individual grant or scholarship programs may require different or higher standards than what are outlined in this policy. In those instances, the individual program standards will supersede the SU policy for that particular program only. The most notable exception is the Tuition Equalization Grant awarded from the State of Texas. Contact the Financial Aid Office for more details regarding standards for individual programs.

EXPENSES

Tuition

At the beginning of each calendar year, Southwestern University's Board of Trustees set the rates for tuition and other charges for the upcoming academic year. Below are the approved rates for the 2025-2026 academic year. The rates for the 2026-2027 academic year have not yet been determined and are subject to change until approved by the Board of Trustees at the beginning of calendar year 2026.

	Per Semester	Per Year
Tuition (2025-2026):	$28,109	$56,218
Tuition (2026–2027):	Charges will be set in January 2026 by the Board of Trustees and will be available in the Business Office.

To further assure a diverse community of scholars, Southwestern provides scholarships, work opportunities and loan funds to students. Awards are based upon need and merit. See "Financial Aid" for information on available financial aid opportunities.

Southwestern welcomes the opportunity to be of service to the population of Central Texas. Participation by experienced, knowledgeable individuals enhances the educational environment. Therefore, individuals may enroll in University courses on a non-credit "audit" basis at a cost of $150 per credit, or $75 per credit if age 50 or over. Transcripts and other formal administrative procedures will not be maintained, thus eliminating unnecessary expenses associated with the enrollment of senior members of the student body.

Audit enrollment will be encouraged in courses designed to develop critical thinking capabilities and which occur in traditional classroom settings. Courses that are designed to develop skills, such as private music lessons and activity courses in the Sarofim School of Fine Arts, fitness and recreational activity courses in the Kinesiology Department, and laboratory courses are not open for audit enrollment.

Room Charges

Room charges reflect actual cost to the University of providing the services. The University is committed to assuring a full range of housing accommodations. Charges for the higher priced accommodations reflect the assigned square footage, location of lavatory facilities and climate control features. When modifications are made to housing accommodations due to need, the housing rates are adjusted appropriately. Room charges for the 2026–2027 academic year will be set in January 2026 by the Board of Trustees.

Room accommodations are assigned for the full academic year, except when a student withdraws for health or academic reasons, is in an approved study abroad program, or when a student graduates at the end of the fall semester. Continuing students who leave the residence halls mid-year to move to private accommodations will be held liable for spring semester room charges. Returning students failing to cancel a room reservation made for the fall semester by July 1 may be held liable for fall semester room charges.

Board Charges

University Food Services, through a contract with Aramark, provides a complete meal service for resident and nonresident students. Since residence halls and the McCombs Residential Center do not have adequate facilities for food preparation, all resident students living there must purchase a meal plan. Resident students may select from any of the meal plans listed below, except the five-meal plan. Students who live in the Grogan and Betty Lord or the Dorothy Manning Lord Residential Center, a Fraternity House, or off campus may choose from any of the meal plans or choose to not have a meal plan at all.

Additional meals may be purchased at posted prices. The menu selections are designed to afford students a range of choices that encourage a nutritionally balanced diet as well as items that may respond to a variety of individual tastes. Special diets can be provided upon the recommendation of a medical doctor. Meal rates for the 2026–2027 academic year will be set in January 2026

Meal Plan Charges (2025-2026) *State sales tax is included.

9 Meals per week + $75 Pirate Buc$ per semester	$2,886	$5,772
5 Meals per week + $100 Pirate Buc$ per semester	$1,257	$2,514

Traditional Meal Plans (15, 12, 9, or 5 Meals per week) –

Unused meals on the Traditional Meal Plans do not transfer from week to week. Meals can only be used for the students to which the plan belongs.

The 5 meal plan is only available to students living in the Dorothy Manning Lord Residential Center, the Grogan and Betty Lord Residential Center, fraternity houses, and off campus.

Pirate Buc$ –

Pirate Buc$ can be used anywhere on or off campus that accepts pirate cards. Pirate Buc$ will carry over from semester to semester and any balance will be refunded when the student graduates or leaves Southwestern.

Deposits

Admitted Student Deposit – Admitted students are required to pay a deposit of $700 prior to pre-registration for the fall semester. This $700 deposit is non-refundable and consists of an enrollment deposit, an orientation deposit, and a housing deposit. The enrollment deposit will be applied to the semester charges at the time of registration or confirmation of pre-registration, and serves to hold the student's classes. The orientation deposit will be applied against the Sprog Orientation charge that will appear on the student's account. The housing deposit of $250 is required of all students residing in the residence halls. The housing deposit assures the assignment of a housing accommodation and provides compensation to the University in the event of damage to the facilities or cancellation of a housing reservation.

All applicable housing deposits are refundable upon completion of a University degree or at the time a student formally withdraws from the University. In the event that a student leaves the residence hall for other than academic/health reasons, to study abroad, or graduation or at the end of an academic year, the deposit will be forfeited. Additionally, students who leave the residence halls between the fall and spring semesters to move to private accommodations will be held liable for spring semester room charges. Returning students who have reserved a room during spring room sign-up for the following fall semester must cancel in writing with the Office of Residence Life by June 1 in order to receive a refund of the housing deposit. Students who are graduating, transferring, studying abroad or formally withdrawing from the University who fail to file an Intent to Vacate form by December 1st will forfeit the housing deposit. All students who live in the residence halls during the fall semester will forfeit their housing deposit if they return to Southwestern and cancel their residence hall room reservation and live elsewhere during the spring semester. In addition, students who cancel after December 1 will be held accountable for the entire spring semester room charge. In the event that any fees or charges are due to the University upon withdrawal or graduation, the deposits will be applied to the balance due.

Schedules of Special Fees and Deposits

Students registered for 12-19 credits will pay full tuition. Special fees and deposits for the 2026–2027 academic year will be set in January 2026 by the Board of Trustees.

Special Fees

Southwestern University has established a number of off-campus academic learning experiences designed to broaden the background of student scholars. Because of special costs associated with some of the programs, special fees may be assessed on a program-by-program basis and are not refundable if the student drops the course. These fees reflect and are specifically set to cover only direct costs applicable to each individual program or adverse currency exchange rates.

Billing & Payment of Accounts

In compliance with Family Education Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA), Southwestern University cannot release a student's educational record, including student account and financial information, to any person unless authorized by law or unless the student consents to the disclosure in writing. Students have the ability to grant proxy access to individuals (parents, guardians, or other designees) through Self-Service. Individuals approved for proxy access can be provided with the ability to access billing and financial aid information, as well as speak with student account professionals and/or financial aid counselors.

The University electronic billing schedule and payment due dates can be found on the Business Office website in the Student Accounts section located at: <https://www.southwestern.edu/business-office/student-accounts/>. Southwestern sends electronic bills

(e-bills) that are posted on the student's Transact Payment Portal which is accessed through the student's Self Service account. In order for parents or other individuals to access e-bills, make payments, sign up for the SU payment plan, and to receive emails and text notifications, the student must "Send a Payer Invitation" to the individual and give them permission through their Transact Payment Portal. Fall semester bills are generated after registration and financial aid awards have been completed and a reminder Fall bill is generated in mid-July. Spring semester bills are generated in November. Students may receive additional bills for charges accrued during the semester such as traffic tickets, library fines, residence hall damages and/or course fees.

At the time of registration for any semester or term, every student is required to accept the Southwestern University Payment Terms Agreement. If the Agreement is declined, registration will not be allowed.

Payment Options -

1. In Person at the Business Office – Cash, checks, money orders, or cashier's checks are accepted at the Business Office, which is located on the first floor of the Cullen Building.
2. By Mail – Checks, money orders, or cashier's checks are accepted by regular mail at the following address:
Southwestern University, 1001 E University Ave, Georgetown, TX 78626
3. Online Payments via the Transact Payment Portal -
 - Credit Card or ACH Payments –
Credit card and ACH payments are accepted online through a student's Self Service Account in the Transact Payment Portal. All credit cards are accepted with a 2.95% processing fee. There is a minimum processing fee of $3 for credit card payments over $20 and less than $106. Electronic check/ACH payments are currently accepted with no fee, but this is subject to change.
 - SU Payment Plan –
SU provides an interest-free payment plan option that is integrated with the student account balance. The payment plan is term specific and has a maximum of five monthly payments for each term depending on the student's enrollment date. There is a nonrefundable $25 enrollment fee that is due upon enrollment. Enrollment in the SU Payment Plan is done through the Transact Payment Portal.
 - Parent or Other Authorized User Access –
Students have to send an invitation to a parent or other authorized individual to have their own access to the Transact Payment Portal in order to access e-bills, make credit card or ACH payments, or to enroll in a payment plan. Instructions are available online at www.southwestern.edu/business-office/student-accounts/payment-options/

Late Payment Fee Policy

Late Payment Fee

An initial late payment fee of $150 will be charged to unpaid student accounts with no payment arrangements made by the payment deadline each semester. In addition, students with past due balances may be dropped from all current and future class enrollment for non-payment. Students with past due balances will not be permitted to move into on-campus housing for the fall semester. Likewise, students already in on-campus housing during the fall semester who have past due balances for spring will be notified prior to the end of the fall semester that they will be required to move out at the end of the term and not permitted to return to housing unless immediate payment arrangements are made.

In calculating the past due balance, confirmed financial aid, established payment plan amounts, verified VA benefits, Texas Tomorrow funds, and other substantiated credits will be considered and deducted from the actual student account balance. Students and families with unique payment circumstances must contact the Business Office to confirm payment arrangements prior to the due date. Late payment fees will be assessed on accounts that have not been paid or do not have sufficient financial aid, other credits, or payment arrangements to cover the total institutional charges owed.

Pre-Registration Holds

Prior to pre-registration for the next term, if any estimated funds or other credits are still not received as payment on the student account or new charges exist that result in an unpaid balance of $300 or more, the student account will be put on hold and pre-registration will not be allowed until the estimated funds are received or the unpaid balance is paid. While on hold, the student will also not be able to obtain a transcript.

Removal of Course Registration for Non-Payment

The payment deadline is communicated in various ways including on the Business Office website, student e-bills, and emails sent directly to the students' SU accounts. If payment arrangements have not been completed by the stated deadlines, the University will proceed with removing a student from all registered classes for the semester, either as a cancellation or withdrawal based on the timing as indicated below.

Course Cancellation for Non-Payment

A cancellation occurs when a student is removed from all classes for non-payment prior to the first day of the semester. For a cancellation, a student will receive a full refund of any tuition and fees paid toward the future semester and all financial aid will also be canceled. Upon resolving the original unpaid student account balance, the student may register again for classes before the end of the add period. Please note that registration for classes is based upon available seats so there is no guarantee the original class schedule can be reinstated.

Course Withdrawal for Non-Payment

A financial withdrawal occurs when a student is removed from classes for non-payment on or after the first day of class. If the deadline to add a class has not passed, upon resolving the original unpaid student account balance, the student may register again for classes without a guarantee of reinstatement of the originally registered courses. If the student who is financially withdrawn for the semester does not re-register, the student will still be responsible for paying the applicable percentage of tuition and board as outlined in the Tuition Refund Schedule noted below in the "Refund Schedule" section. Room charges will not be refunded due to financial withdrawal. Institutional, state, and federal financial aid are also subject to being reduced in the event of that student's withdrawal from classes and failure to re-register during a semester.

Delinquent Accounts & Collection Agencies

After the end of the semester, any remaining delinquent accounts will be referred to outside collection agencies and will be reported to the national credit bureaus. The student is responsible for payment of any and all collection agency charges, attorney fees, and court costs that accrue. Student account balances are considered to be an educational loan and therefore are not dischargeable under the United States Bankruptcy Code.

Refund Schedule

Students who are allowed to withdraw all or part of their registration will be granted a reduction of a portion of the original charges according to the schedule shown below. Questions regarding the University's refund policies should be addressed to the Business Office. A student who is permitted to change courses by dropping and adding one or more courses will be given full tuition credit for the courses dropped to be applied toward the tuition charges for the courses added, if the drop and add occur simultaneously. The date the withdrawal or change in class load is received by the Office of the Registrar determines refunds as shown:

Tuition:

During first full week of classes	80% credit
During second full week of classes	60% credit
During third full week of classes	50% credit
During fourth full week of classes	40% credit
During fifth full week of classes	30% credit
After the end of the fifth full week of classes	None

Board:

75% of the unused portion of the base meal plan is refunded.

Pirate Buc$ refunds must be requested in writing from the Pirate Card Office.

Room:

No refund is made on room charges, even if a student is asked to vacate an assigned residence hall room for disciplinary reasons.

Summer Refund Schedule

Tuition for Summer I & Summer III:

Day 1 of classes	80% credit
Day 2 of classes	60% credit
Day 3 of classes	50% credit
Day 4 of classes	40% credit
Day 5 of classes	30% credit
Day 6 of classes and after	None

The Tuition Refund Plan, offered by A.W.G. Dewar Insurance, provides coverage for the university charges of tuition, room and board when a student is required to withdraw from school due to a medical or mental health illness before the semester is complete based upon a doctor's certification. This Tuition Refund Plan is a private insurance program that supplements Southwestern University's standard refund policy by offering up to 75% coverage for withdrawals due to medical illness or injury and up to 75% for mental health withdrawals in accordance with the policy terms and conditions. Participation in the Tuition Refund Plan offered by A.W.G. Dewar is entirely optional and the University's refund program is applicable whether or not a student enrolls in the plan.

Students Called to Active Military Service

If a student withdraws because the student is called to active military service, the effective date of withdrawal will be used to calculate financial aid and tuition refunds, in accordance with published institutional, state, and federal refund policies as applicable.

Withdrawals and Financial Aid

A student's institutional and federal financial aid is subject to being reduced in the event of that student's withdrawal from classes during a semester. Consult the "Financial Aid" section of this catalog for information regarding the impact of a withdrawal on a student's financial aid award.

Part-Time Status and Financial Aid

Most financial aid and University merit scholarship programs require a student to enroll at the University on a full-time basis. Consult the "Financial Aid" section of this catalog for information about how this policy affects students who enroll on a part-time basis.

VETERANS AND FAMILY MEMBERS

Southwestern University is approved to offer instruction to students attending college under the provisions of the United States Code, Title 38, and Chapter 30, 31, 33, and 35.

The University contact for individuals planning to use Veterans Administration (VA) benefits is the Veterans' Certifying Official in the Office of the Registrar.

Veterans who have successfully completed basic training, and have been honorably discharged, will be granted one upper-level fitness and recreational activity (FRA) credit after submitting a DD 214 to the Office of the Registrar. Students on active duty may submit their Joint Services Military Transcript if a DD 214 is not available.

An individual planning to attend Southwestern University using VA benefits must comply with the following procedures:

1. Complete all requirements for admission to the University as a degree-seeking student or as a visiting student with an approved formal degree plan from another university.
2. Have an evaluation of service schools/experiences completed by the Office of the Registrar to determine any awarding of military credit when such credit is appropriate to the degree programs of the students at Southwestern.
3. In coordination with an assigned academic advisor, register for courses that are required for completion of the student's selected degree.
4. Maintain satisfactory academic progress. The provisions found in the Academic Status and Eligibility section, under the headings of "Academic Probation" and "Dismissal and Eligibility for Continuance", as well as the provisions found in the "Satisfactory Academic Progress Policy for Financial Aid Eligibility" in this catalog will apply.

In compliance with the Veterans Benefits and Transition Act of 2018, section 3679(e) of Title 38, United States Code, Southwestern University

- will permit any covered individual to attend or participate in the course of education during the period beginning on the date on which the individual provides to the University a certificate of eligibility for entitlement to educational assistance under Chapter 31 or Chapter 33 (a "certificate of eligibility" can also include a "Statement of Benefits" obtained from the Department of Veterans Affairs' (VA) website - eBenefits, or a VAF 28-1905 form for Chapter 31 authorization purposes) and ending on the earlier of the following dates:
 - o The date on which payment from VA is made to the University.
 - o 90 days after the date the University certified tuition and fees following the receipt of the certificate of eligibility.

- will not impose any penalty, including the assessment of late fees, the denial of access to classes, libraries, or other institutional facilities, or the requirement that a covered individual borrow additional funds, on any covered individual because of the individual's inability to meet their financial obligations to the University due to the delayed disbursement funding from VA under Chapter 31 or 33.

As allowed under the Veterans Benefits and Transition Act of 2018, section 3679(e) of Title 38, United States Code, the covered individual will be required to:

1. Submit a certificate of eligibility (COE) for entitlement to educational assistance no later than the first day of a course of education.
2. Submit a written request to use such entitlement.
3. Provide additional information necessary to the proper certification of enrollment by the University.
4. Pay any amount that is the difference between the amount of the student's financial obligation and the amount of the VA education benefit disbursement. The provisions found in the Late Payment Fee Policy, under the heading of "Late Payment Fee" in this catalog will apply.

Note: A Covered Individual is any individual who is entitled to educational assistance under Chapter 31, Veteran Readiness and Employment, or Chapter 33, Post-9/11 GI Bill® benefits.

The VA requires that schools make electronic transcripts available to all students using VA benefits. SU makes unofficial transcripts available at any time in the student's Self Service portal. Students may order official transcripts, including electronic transcripts, on the SU Registrar's website: <https://www.southwestern.edu/academics/records-registrar/>

GI Bill® is a registered trademark of the U.S. Department of Veterans Affairs (VA). More information about education benefits offered by VA is available at the official U.S. government website at <http://www.benefits.va.gov/gibill>.

STUDENT LIFE

STUDENT LIFE MISSION

In partnership with students, we create a community of learning through celebrative and transformative programs and individualized services.

ATHLETIC AND RECREATIONAL OPPORTUNITIES

The University provides comprehensive and meaningful opportunities for students at all levels of skill and physical ability. Sports and recreational facilities on campus include an indoor swimming pool; tennis courts; outdoor volleyball and basketball courts; indoor and outdoor tracks; gymnasiums; exercise and weight rooms; soccer, baseball; softball and lacrosse fields; and games and media rooms in the Campus Center. Students will find sports, recreation, and wellness activities available at Southwestern in a number of areas, including intercollegiate athletics, club sports, intramurals, and recreational activities.

Campus Recreation

Southwestern Campus Recreation (Campus Rec) provides the University community with opportunities for physical, social, and educational development through participation in intramural sports, fitness/wellness, sport clubs, and outdoor adventure programs.

Intramural sports provide an opportunity for participation in organized team and individual sports at various skill levels. A schedule of team sports, individual sports, and special events allows students, faculty and staff to compete against others of similar skill in men's, women's, and co-rec divisions of play.

A wide variety of fitness classes are offered by Campus Rec Please check the Campus Rec website: <https://www.southwestern.edu/life-at-southwestern/intramural-recreational-activities-sira/>, or call 512-863-1665 for more information.

Sport clubs are student organizations focused on a specific sport or physical activity. Current clubs include SU Cheerleaders, SU Pom Squad and the Climbing Club. A club may be instructional, recreational, and/or competitively oriented depending upon the interest of the club members. As with all student organizations, a sport club member placed on scholastic or disciplinary probation is not eligible for election to office within the club and may not represent the club at off-campus events/contests.

Outdoor Adventure provides students the opportunity to sign up for outdoor trips both locally, nationally and internationally. Activities include hiking, rock climbing, mountain climbing, kayaking, paddle boarding, caving, and camping trips. Outdoor Adventure also provides outdoor equipment that can be checked out at no cost to SU community members.

Approximately 40 students are employed annually in several important positions within Campus Rec including: Intramural Supervisor, Intramural Sports Official, Office Assistant, Publicity Assistant, Sport Club Assistant, and Equipment Manager. For more information, visit the Campus Rec website, call 512-863-1606 or stop by the Campus Rec Office in the Robertson Center, Room 214.

Intercollegiate Athletics

Southwestern University competes nationally as an intercollegiate program in the National Collegiate Athletic Association (NCAA) Division III, without offering athletic scholarships. Conference affiliation for all sports is with the Southern Athletic Association (SAA), which includes Berry College, Centre College, Millsaps College, Oglethorpe University, Rhodes College, University of the South, and Trinity University. The Pirates compete in 20 sports, including men's baseball, men's and women's basketball, men's and women's cross country, men's football, men's and women's golf, men's and women's lacrosse, men's and women's soccer, women's softball, men's and women's swimming and diving, men's and women's tennis, men's and women's track and field, and women's volleyball.

The Athletics Department staff and its student-athletes place the highest priority on academic success and the overall quality of the educational experience while striving for excellence on the playing field. The Athletics Department's goal is to reflect Southwestern's commitment to the principles of sportsmanship, ethical conduct, honesty, fairness, and respect for others, with an emphasis on the health and welfare of our student-athletes. The Athletic Department strives to collaborate with multiple campus constituencies to implement programs and deliver services that ensure fair and equitable treatment of men and women, maintaining a focus on a values-centered education of the whole person.

Faculty members are important partners in helping student-athletes balance the rigors of their academic studies with the challenges of intercollegiate athletic participation. Student-athletes are responsible for communicating with faculty and staff about their travel schedules and working to make appropriate accommodations regarding make-up work and exams.

For student fans of the Southwestern teams, admission to all athletic events is free with their student ID card. All sports, except football, play their home games on campus. Football plays its home contests at Georgetown ISD's Birkelbach Stadium.

COUNSELING CENTER

The Counseling Center provides confidential, short-term individual, group, and relationship counseling concerning personal issues. Students seek counseling for a wide variety of issues. These include: adjustment to college, motivation, depression, anxiety, relationships with peers or family, sexuality, alcohol or drug use, body image, suicidal thoughts, self-esteem, mood swings, disordered eating, trauma, and stress. Referral to off-campus professionals is available for complex medication concerns and for long-term counseling. For more information call 512-863-1252 or come by the Counseling Center on the second floor of the Prothro Center for Lifelong Learning.

FRATERNITY AND SORORITY LIFE

Fraternity and Sorority Life at Southwestern University offers students a dynamic and enriching experience that extends beyond social events and networking. The key benefits of joining a fraternity or sorority include: strong sense of community, lifelong friendships, leadership development, personal growth, academic support, philanthropy and community service, networking and career opportunities, and social and personal enrichment. In the 2025-26 academic year, the organizations at Southwestern are: Alpha Delta Pi, Alpha Kappa Alpha, Alpha Xi Delta, Delta Delta Delta, Kappa Alpha, Kappa Delta Chi, Kappa Sigma, Phi Delta Theta, Pi Kappa Alpha, and Zeta Tau Alpha.

HEALTH CENTER

The Health Center provides students with confidential, quality health care services and education. We encourage students to take an active role in their well-being and health care decisions.

The Health Center is located on the second floor of the Prothro Center, and is open Monday to Friday, 8:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m. during the fall and spring semesters. Appointments are strongly recommended, and same day appointments are available on a first-come, first-served basis.

The team of health care professionals includes physicians, nurse practitioners, and a registered nurse. Our services include diagnosis and treatment of common illnesses, chronic conditions and mental health issues, wellness exams, physicals, laboratory testing, and prescriptions. When appropriate, we will make referrals to off-campus resources and specialists. The Health Center does not provide emergency care. Students should always call 911 for life-threatening emergencies. A list of local after-hours resources can be found at www.southwestern.edu/health-center/.

Medical Excuse Policy

The Health Center does not provide written excuses for student absences. It is the student's responsibility to notify professors whenever they have an illness or injury that may result in missed classes. The Health Center expects that students are honest with their professors as part of the Honor Code. This policy is consistent with the recommendations of the American College Health

Association and resembles policies at most other colleges and universities. Exceptions will only be made when the student is expected to be absent for an extended period of time.

No Show Policy

The Counseling and Health Center charges a “no show” fee for all appointments that are not attended or canceled within 24 hours prior to the scheduled appointment. A fee of $15 will be automatically charged to the student’s account.

Health Information Requirements

As part of the admission process, the Health Center requires immunization records, including meningitis vaccine for students 21 years and under, a TB screening test, and a completed health history. These may be uploaded on the patient portal which can be found at www.southwestern.edu/health-center/

Student Health Insurance

All students are required to have an active health insurance policy at all times, and students should always bring a copy of their most current health insurance card to all appointments. The Health Center will see all students regardless of what health insurance coverage they have.

All students will be automatically enrolled in a student health insurance plan unless they opt out. Students may waive the auto-enrollment by entering current health insurance information before the deadline at www.eiiastudent.org/southwestern/.

THE HONOR CODE

When students enter Southwestern University, they agree to support the Honor Code, which dates back to at least 1907 and is one of the oldest honor codes in the U.S. Students established the Honor Code and continue to assume responsibility for honorable conduct in all academic work. Students are on their honor to do their own work and to report other students who violate this commitment. Students write the following pledge on all examinations: "I have acted with honesty and integrity in producing this work and am unaware of anyone who has not."

JUSTICE, EQUITY, DIVERSITY, AND INCLUSION CENTER

The Justice, Equity, Diversity, and Inclusion (JEDI) center fosters an inclusive and equitable environment at Southwestern, in our community, and beyond. We strive to elevate the voices of underrepresented populations of historically marginalized individuals and cultivate a community of belonging. The JEDI center creates diverse, equitable, and inclusive environments through quality education, robust research, and community building. In addition, the JEDI Center serves as an advisor to and provides support and resources for the Coalition for Diversity and Social Justice (CDSJ), which includes eleven cultural, identity, and social justice-based groups. All students and organizations are welcome to be a part of the coalition if they are interested in working on diversity, inclusion, and social justice causes. For more information call 512-863-1342 or come by the JEDI Center located on the third floor of McCombs room 334 (MCC 334).

PERSONAL CONDUCT

A student's enrollment at Southwestern University is considered an implicit declaration of acceptance of University regulations as outlined in the most recent issues of the Catalog and Student Handbook. The Student Handbook is available online. Responsible citizenship among college students includes honesty and integrity in class work, regard for the rights of others, and respect for local, state and national laws and for campus policies and regulations. Students are expected to become thoroughly familiar with University policy and the University's core values.

RESIDENCE LIFE

Living on campus empowers students to be active and engaged community members, develop holistically, and establish practices for lifelong success through the intersections of academic and social life. Residence halls are a vital part of the Southwestern campus community and complement the educational purposes of the University by providing an atmosphere conducive to meeting academic, social, and personal needs of students.

Professional staff and student Resident Assistants provide intentionally crafted educational, recreational, social, and cultural opportunities to support and supplement the intellectual experiences occurring in and out of the classroom.

Students who have completed less than six full semesters in college (post high school graduation) are required to live on campus. When living on campus, each student, except those living in the Lord Residential Center, the Dorothy Manning Lord Residential Center or the fraternity houses, must purchase a meal plan from the University's food service provider. Requests for medical exemptions from the residency and/or food service requirement may be addressed to the Associate Director of Academic Success. Many juniors and seniors choose to live on campus, and housing is assigned on a first-come, first-served basis.

Residence hall applications for new students are made by filling out an online housing form. Students can access the form after they have submitted the non-refundable matriculation deposit in the amount of $700, payable to Southwestern University, to the Office of Admission. Upper-division students wishing to live on campus reserve a space during the annual spring room selection process.

The University assumes no responsibility for the loss of property belonging to students in residence halls or any building owned by the University, whether the loss is the result of fire, theft, flood, or an unknown cause. Southwestern University does not carry insurance on personal property of students. It is strongly recommended that students insure their personal property, including automobiles, through their family's homeowner's or automobile insurance policy or by purchasing personal property insurance.

Information concerning room and board rates, payment plans and refund policies may be found in the Expenses section.

SPIRITUAL LIFE

The spiritual well-being of every member in the Southwestern University community is vitally important. The primary focus of the Office of Spiritual Life is to assist members, not only in their personal spiritual health, but also to strive for the spiritual health of the community as a whole. Purpose and meaning in life is fundamental to spiritual well-being. Thus, spiritual discernment is an essential element of the Southwestern University experience. The University Chaplain collaborates with trustees, faculty, staff, students, alumni, parents, and friends of the University to fulfill this mission. There are several ways to learn, grow, and serve including weekly gatherings, occasional lectures, and religious organizations. In addition, there are special places to enhance one's spiritual growth and well-being. The Lois Perkins Chapel is open daily from 8:00 a.m. until midnight for prayer, meditation, and group meetings, as is the Chapel lounge/Multi-faith prayer room next to the Chapel. There is also a Prayer Labyrinth available on the campus. The University Chaplain's office is located in 325 of the McCombs Campus Center. You may also call (512) 863-1959.

STUDENT ACTIVITIES

The mission of the Office of Student Activities is to act as an advisor, ally, educator and mentor to the students of Southwestern University by facilitating learning experiences through leadership opportunities, student organizations, social activities and services that promote personal growth and the empowerment of students for success in our diverse community and beyond. The Office works closely with all student organizations, student leaders, and various university committees. Student Activities has responsibility for the development and coordination of campus wide programming such as Friday Night Live, concerts, leadership development, and advising various student organizations (including the University Programming Council. For more information, stop by the office, which is located in suite 340 of the McCombs Campus Center, or call 512-863-1345.

UNIVERSITY POLICE DEPARTMENT

The mission of the Southwestern University Police Department (SUPD) is to serve our diverse and inclusive community by promoting a safe and secure living and learning environment that fosters thinking, creativity, and connections. SUPD accomplishes this mission by engaging with students, faculty, and staff under a community policing philosophy; by sponsoring a variety of proactive safety and awareness programs and events; and by protecting life and property through equal and unbiased enforcement of University policy, local, state, and federal laws. Each SUPD Officer holds a Master Peace Officer License. SUPD Officers are always available to offer assistance when needed, and patrol campus 24 hours a day, 365 days a year. For comprehensive information about safety on campus, see the section entitled Safety and Security Information in the Student Handbook. For police assistance and/or to learn more about SUPD, call 512-863-1944.

Motor Vehicle Regulations

Students who operate motor vehicles on campus are required to register their vehicles and comply with the currently approved and published traffic and parking regulations. All Southwestern students are automatically charged a Vehicle Registration of $120.00 per semester ($240 for the academic year). If a student will never park a vehicle on campus, the charge may be waived by completing the Vehicle Registration Waiver form online at tinyurl.com/parkingwaiver. The online waiver form must be submitted each semester by the required deadline.

CENTER FOR CAREER & PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT

The Center for Career & Professional Development (CCPD) empowers students to shape their professional identities, develop 21st century career-readiness skills, and construct well-managed professional lives. Students who engage early and often with the CCPD have a better grasp of the career search process and have the potential for more options as they move from college to the post-graduate world of work or advanced degree programs. With the CCPD's guidance, students can explore themselves, the world of work, and engage in effective searches for jobs, internships, and graduate/professional schools, especially leveraging Career Community networks.

Personalized, individual career advising provides students the chance to use self-assessment tools, like personality and interest inventories, to explore majors and careers. Advisors also work one-on-one with students to help them develop effective resumes, cover letters, social media presence, interviewing and networking skills, and personalized internship/job search strategies.

Students can take part in a wide variety of special events to learn career development skills and to explore various career fields, especially through connections with alumni. Examples include Career Connections BBQ, Careers in... sessions, Career Treks, and the immersive SOAR (Skills ~ Opportunities ~ Action ~ Results) Summit exclusively for sophomores.

The CCPD connects students with employers for part-time jobs, internships, and full-time employment via HireSU (online job board), on-campus information sessions and interviews, and career fairs. Advisors also help students pursuing graduate/professional school learn how to identify programs, review personal statements and other application materials, and conduct graduate school admission practice interviews.

Numerous valuable resources for students include a comprehensive website offering information on a range of exploration, experiential, and job search topics; Career Cafe with coffee, work space, and career-focused publications; and PirateConnect, a virtual networking platform to connect Career Communities.

Visit the Prothro Center, Suite 140, or www.southwestern.edu/careers to learn more.

CULTURAL ACTIVITIES AND SPECIAL CAMPUS PROGRAMS

Southwestern University sponsors a number of cultural activities and special programs to enhance the quality of life on campus, provide access by students and other members of the campus community to people and issues which will stimulate their own reflection, and support and contribute to the academic environment of the institution. These activities are designed to interrelate academic activity with the social and everyday life on campus and reflect the University's commitment to the education and development of the whole person.

THE ARTIST SERIES

Throughout the academic year, the departments in the Sarofim School of Fine Arts bring a wide range of guest artists to campus to present exhibits, lectures, and to perform in concerts and theatrical productions. Among them have been The Peabody Trio, Christian Lavigne, Anton Nel, Abbie Conant & William Osborne, the Austin Civic Orchestra, Rudy Pozzatti, Top Brass from The United States Army 'Pershing's Own', Roomful of Teeth, Susanne Mentzer, Laura Claycomb, and Badi Assad.

The students and faculty of the Departments of Art & Art History, Music and Theatre also present many performances throughout the year. In addition to many solo recitals, the Jazz Band, Wind Ensemble, Orchestra, and Opera Theatre regularly perform on the Alma Thomas and Jones Theater stages. Recent stage productions have included Gypsy, Little Shop of Horrors, Heartbreak House, Suburbia, Anton in Show Business, Rumors, Dead Man Walking, In the Next Room, The Don Juan Project, Five Women Wearing the Same Dress, Silent Sky, and Ride the Cyclone: The Musical. The Theatre Department also regularly produces theatre for young audiences, such as The Yellow Boat, Frog and Toad, A Midsummer Night's Dream, You're a Good Man, Charlie Brown, Sideways Stories from Wayside School, How I Became a Pirate, and Luna. All performances and concerts are free to Southwestern students, faculty and staff. All theatre productions and music concerts require a ticket that is available at the Box Office.

LECTURESHIPS AND SYMPOSIA

In an effort to provide students at Southwestern University access to major issues of life and culture, the University presents a series of lectures and other academic occasions during the year.

Brown Symposium Series

Through the generosity of The Brown Foundation, Inc., of Houston, the Brown Symposium Series was established to bring to campus people of national and international repute in areas represented by the holders of endowed Brown professorships. Distinct from traditional lecture series and offered biennially, these symposia are integrated into the regular curricular design of the University, and the members of the symposia participate in a total education experience.

Symposia topics have included: "Cosmology: the Changing Philosophies of Science," "Benjamin Britten and the Ceremony of Innocence," "Pandora's Box: Computers in Everyday Life," "Africa and Afro-America," "Punctuated Evolution: The Slender Thread of Life," "Discoveries of America," "Macrohistory: New Visions of the World," "Global Climates: Past, Present & Future," "Communities," "Drawing and Crossing Boundaries: The Roots of Texas Music," "The Human Genome Project: Advances, Repercussions and Challenges," "España y América: Cultural Encounter—Enduring Legacy," "Shakespeares!!," "Globalization: Win-Win or Win-Lose?," "Spiritualities of Resistance," "Arctic Journey: Discoveries of Inter-relationships in the Circumpolar North," "For Love and Justice: Breaking the Cycles of Intimate Violence," "GNP or Gross National Well-Being?," "Who Do We Think We Are?!", "Umwelt: Exploring the Self-Worlds of Human and Non-Human Animals," "Science and Religion: Conflict or Convergence?," "IMPERIVM: The Art of Empire in Rome and America," "Think – Converse – Act: The Salon and Its Histories," "Back to the Foodture: Sustainable Strategies to Reverse a Global Crisis," "Sex Talk: A Symposium with Benefits," "Healing: The Art and Science of Medicine," "What Things May Come: 3D Printing in the Fine Arts and Sciences," "Art + Revolution," "The Anthropocene," "Attraction: The science and art of sea and romance," "Radical Imagination: Art and Social Change," and "Visualizing the Abstract."

The Roy & Margaret Shilling Lecture Series

Established in 1999 by The Brown Foundation, Inc. of Houston to honor the 13th president and first lady of Southwestern, the Roy & Margaret Shilling Lecture Series presents internationally prominent speakers on topics relating to ethics, public service and public policy. Speakers have included The Archbishop Desmond Tutu, President Jimmy Carter, Bill Moyers, Karen Hughes, Marian Wright Edelman, John McGuire, William Sloane Coffin, Prime Minister Benazir Bhutto, Thomas H. Kean, Bill Bradley, Wangari Maathai, Dr. William H. Foege, Blake Mycoskie, Thomas Friedman, Jane Goodall, Scott Simon, Sister Helen Prejean, Jonathan Haidt, Donna Brazile and Mary Matalin, Dr. Ruth J. Simmons, and Kevin Young. The lecture is offered biennially.

The A. Frank Smith, Jr. Distinguished Lecture Program

In 1988, the law firm of Vinson & Elkins honored its former managing partner and longtime Southwestern University trustee, A. Frank Smith, Jr., through the endowment that established this lecture program. These lectures bring to campus distinguished guest speakers in the fields of law, history, government, political science and public service.

The Jessie Daniel Ames Lecture Series

The Jessie Daniel Ames Lecture Series focuses on the professional and civic achievements of women. Established in 1985, the lecture series is named for Jessie Daniel Ames, a 1902 alumna of Southwestern University who championed the causes of voting rights for women, prison reform and anti-lynching legislation. A businessperson and leader in the national suffragist movement, she was a founder and the first president of the Texas League of Women Voters and was one of the first women delegates to the state and national Democratic conventions.

The Willson Lectureships

The late J.M. Willson and Mrs. Willson of Floydada, Texas—both Southwestern alumni—established in 1948 a lectureship to be known as the Willson Lectureship. The lectures are directed to the student body and seek to significantly relate religious questions to social life and experience.

Global Citizens Program

In 1979, Everett and Margueritte DuPuy established the Global Citizens Fund at Southwestern to promote the responsibility that global citizenship brings. The focus of the fund has been to enhance world peace and international cooperation by supporting both on-campus and off-campus activities that lead to international understanding.

The Slover-Southwestern Lectureships

This lectureship series represents the joining of an endowment given by the German Mission Conference to Southwestern University and an endowment left by the late Reverend George S. Slover, DD. Each of these endowments was originally given to establish annual lectureships. Since 1978, they have been combined to provide one lectureship a year in the area of values and social questions.

HISTORY AND GOVERNANCE

Southwestern University is the descendant of four of the earliest institutions of higher learning in Texas. The forerunner of Southwestern, Rutgersville College, was chartered by the Republic of Texas in 1840, making it the first college in what was to become the state of Texas. The three other colleges founded by pioneering Methodists and united in one central college in Georgetown in 1873 were Wesleyan College, chartered in 1844; McKenzie College, 1848; and Soule University, 1856. When the five Methodist Conferences of Texas located the central institution in Georgetown it was known as Texas University, however in 1875 that name was ceded to the state of Texas and the present name, Southwestern University, was adopted; at that time Southwestern was the southernmost Methodist college in the United States.

Southwestern is governed by an up to 45-member Board of Trustees consisting of representatives from the named Annual Conferences of the United Methodist Church within Texas, two episcopal bishops, trustees at large, and two recent graduates of the University, nominated by students. The president of the Southwestern University Alumni Association, the president of the Board of Visitors of the University, and the president of the University are ex-officio members of the Board. The trustees from the individual Conferences are nominated by the Board and elected by the respective Annual Conference. Episcopal trustees are nominated and elected by the bishops of the University's five patronizing conferences in consultation with the Board. At-large trustees are elected by the Board. Elected trustees, other than student trustees, serve terms of three years. Student trustees serve terms of two years.

Sixteen presidents and five interim presidents have served Southwestern since it was established in Georgetown: Francis Asbury Mood, 1873–1884; John Wesley Heidt, 1885–1889; John Howell McLean, 1889–1897; Robert Stewart Hyer, 1898–1911; Charles McTyre Bishop, 1911–1922; Paul Whitfield Horn, 1922–1924; James Samuel Barcus, 1924–1928; King Vivion, 1928–1935; John William Bergin, 1935–1942; John Nelson Russell Score, 1942–1949; William Carrington Finch, 1949–1961; Lawrence Durwood Fleming, 1961–1981; Roy B. Shilling Jr., 1981–2000; Jake B. Schrum, 2000–2013; Edward B. Burger, 2013–2020, and Laura Skandera Trombley 2020–present. Faculty members John Howell McLean, John R. Allen, Randolph Ward Tinsley, William B. Jones and trustee Dale T. Knobel each served as interim presidents during changes in administrations.

THE CAMPUS

Southwestern University's campus has been called one of Texas' most beautiful and best-planned college facilities. Located in a residential area on the eastern edge of Georgetown, the more than 30 buildings situated on 700 acres create a beautiful and conducive environment for living and learning.

The Administration Building, completed in 1900, was renovated in the 1970s with grants from The Cullen Foundation of Houston. Following the official reopening and dedication on Oct. 14, 1977, it was renamed the Roy and Lillie Cullen Building in memory of the late Roy and Lillie Cullen, distinguished citizens and exemplary philanthropists of Texas. The Cullen Building includes classrooms, the Schrum Alumni Center and spaces for the Business Office, the Office of Institutional Research, Finance and Administration, University Relations, Marketing and Communications, Human Resources, Academic Affairs, and the Office of the President.

The Wilhelmina Cullen Welcome Center, located behind the Cullen Building, was completed in 2009. It houses the Offices of Admission and Financial Aid.

Mood-Bridwell Hall, erected in 1908, was originally named Mood Hall in honor of Francis A. Mood, the first Regent (president) of the University. It was renamed Mood-Bridwell Hall in October 1978, following renovations funded by grants from the J.S. Bridwell Foundation of Wichita Falls, Texas, and The J.E. and L.E. Mabree Foundation, Inc., of Tulsa, Oklahoma. Mood-Bridwell Hall includes classrooms, and faculty offices for the Communication Studies, Education, English, History, Economics and Business, Environmental Studies, Philosophy, Political Science, Religion and Culture, Sociology and Anthropology. Both Mood-Bridwell Hall and the Cullen Building are included in the National Register of Historic Places. An extensive renovation of Mood-Bridwell was completed in Summer 2025.

The Fondren-Jones Science Hall provides classroom and laboratory facilities for the University's curriculum in the sciences, as well as offices for the Biology, Chemistry and Biochemistry, Kinesiology, Math and Computer Science, and Physics Departments. The original building was completed in 1954 as a gift from Mrs. W.W. Fondren of Houston. With gifts from Houston Endowment Inc., of Houston, the building was completely renovated during 1980–81. Formerly called the Fondren Science Hall, the building was rededicated in the fall of 1981. The new name, The Fondren-Jones Science Hall, recognizes the long friendship between Jesse H. Jones, founder of Houston Endowment Inc., and Southwestern University. The Gordon C. Evans Sr. Wing of Fondren-Jones was dedicated in 1999, adding 24,000 square feet to the facility. It features multimedia classrooms, research laboratories, a computer laboratory and faculty offices. Gordon C. Evans Sr. was a longtime employee of the Jesse H. Jones Interests and Houston Endowment, Inc. A major expansion and renovation of the science center was completed in 2016. In 2018, the Jack and Camille Garey School of Natural Sciences was formed focusing attention on the University's leadership in educating physicians, medical professionals, engineers, physical and occupational therapists, and scientists in various fields. Named in honor of Jack and Camille Garey's significant contributions to the University, the school comprises the Natural Sciences Area, which houses five academic departments offering 12 majors and minors. The objective of the school is to foster the highest standards of scholarship and academic quality in science, technology, engineering, and mathematics (STEM) fields while prioritizing multidisciplinary connections with the humanities, fine arts, and social sciences.

At the center of campus is the Roy H. Cullen Academic Mall, completed in 1993. The mall was made possible by a grant from The Cullen Foundation of Houston in honor of Roy H. Cullen, longtime University trustee. The Brown Fountain honors the Brown family and The Brown Foundation, Inc. for their 1976-1996 transformational matching grant program, The Brown Challenge.

The A. Frank Smith, Jr. Library Center houses one of the area's finest college libraries, with more than 300,000 catalogued volumes and periodical subscriptions. The library's special collections include the papers of the late Sen. John Goodwin Tower (a Southwestern alumnus), the Clark Texana Collection, and the J. Frank Dobie and Bertha McKee Dobie Collections, both of whom were Southwestern alumni. The structure is a blend of classic and modern architecture. In 1966, a modern smooth limestone and glass building was constructed and connected to the original building which had been dedicated in 1939. The 1966 construction and renovation was made possible by a gift from The Brown Foundation, Inc., of Houston, and gifts from friends of Mr. Herman Brown, a member of the University's Board of Trustees for many years. After a 1988 addition, which doubled the size of the library, the building was named in honor of A. Frank Smith Jr. of Houston, distinguished trustee of the University for many years and chairman of the board from 1977-1987. The Professor John Score II Learning Commons, which includes the Deborah S. Ellis Writing Center and the Tutoring Center, is located within the library.

Across the academic mall from the A. Frank Smith, Jr. Library Center is Lois Perkins Chapel, a Gothic-inspired structure of native limestone seating 850, where weekly chapel services and other events are held. The chapel was erected in 1950 with a gift from the late J.J. Perkins of Wichita Falls, Texas, and is named in honor of Mrs. Perkins, an alumna of the University. The chapel was completely renovated in 1981 through a gift from Mr. and Mrs. Charles N. Prothro of Wichita Falls, Texas, to honor her mother, Mrs. Perkins. Mr. Prothro served on the Board of Trustees for 30 years and was chair for 11 of those years. The chapel courtyard contains a sculpture titled Madonna and Child by noted Austin sculptor Charles Umlauf. It was given to Southwestern in 1953 by Southwestern alumna Margaret Root Brown in memory of her mother, South Carolina Easley Root. The plaza behind the chapel is named for William Carrington Finch, who served as president of Southwestern from 1949-1961, and his wife, Lucy.

West of the chapel is the Red & Charline McCombs Campus Center, dedicated in 1998 and made possible by a gift from alumni Red and Charline McCombs of San Antonio, The Vivian L. Smith Foundation of Houston, the J.E. and L.E. Mabee Foundation of Tulsa, Okla., and Charles and Elizabeth Prothro and the Perkins-Prothro Foundations of Wichita Falls, Texas. The 63,000 square-foot center includes campus dining facilities; a ballroom; student organization offices; the University Bookstore; the JEDI Center, the University Post Office; Offices of the Vice President for Student Life, Student Activities, Religious Life and the Dean of Students. Mr. McCombs chaired the University's Board of Trustees from 1992 to 2000.

East of the chapel is the F.W. Olin Building, dedicated in 1996. Funded by a grant from the F.W. Olin Foundation of New York, N.Y., the 39,000 square-foot building includes lecture halls, electronic classrooms, three psychology laboratories and faculty offices for the Communication Studies, Psychology, and the Language, Literature and Culture Departments.

Next to the Olin Building is the Charles and Elizabeth Prothro Center for Lifelong Learning, which opened in 2010. In addition to classrooms and seminar spaces, many student services are located in this building, including the Center for Career & Professional Development, Health and Counseling Services, the Office of the Registrar, and the Center for Academic Success and Advising. It also serves as the home for Paideia and the Center for Integrative Learning which includes the Office of Study Abroad and International Student Services and the Office of Academic Internships.

The Sarofim School of Fine Arts, named for arts benefactor Faye Sarofim of Houston, is housed in The Alma Thomas Fine Arts Center, erected in 1956 and the gift of the late Mrs. Alma Thomas of Austin, a longtime trustee of the University. The three-story building contains two theaters – the 720-seat Alma Thomas Theater and the 320-seat Jones Theater, made possible by a grant from Houston Endowment Inc., and named for Jesse H. Jones and Mary Gibbs Jones. It also includes rehearsal halls; practice rooms; an art gallery; studios for painting, drawing, printmaking, design and architecture; and offices for the Art and Art History, Music and Theatre Departments. In 2025 the Alma Thomas Theater's stage was christened the Roger Edward Davidson '49 Stage.

The 18,000 square-foot visual arts wing, added in 1999, was made possible by a gift from Mr. Sarofim. Another gift from Mr. Sarofim enabled the University to completely renovate the Alma Thomas Theater. The newly renovated theater was dedicated in 2008, giving Southwestern University as fine a performing arts facility as any liberal arts college in the country. The separate Rufus Franklin Edwards Studio Arts Building contains studios for sculpture and ceramics. Construction of the building was funded by Mr. Edwards, class of 1922. The Corbin J. Robertson Center, dedicated in 1996, provides more than 95,000 square feet of comprehensive recreational and athletics facilities. The center includes the Intercollegiate Athletics Departments and offices for Athletic Training and Recreational Sports. These facilities were made possible by major gifts from The Cullen Foundation, The Cullen Trust for Higher Education and the James V. and Pat Walzel family, all of Houston. The center is named in honor and memory of the late Corbin J. Robertson, Houston businessman and philanthropist. James Walzel serves as a life trustee of the University. The baseball locker room that was added to the Robertson Center in 2013 is named in memory of Jim Mallon, the winningest coach in the University's history.

The Fountainwood Observatory, dedicated in 1997, was made possible by the partners of Fountainwood Estates in Georgetown. Joe S. Mundy Hall, dedicated in 2004, houses classrooms, transitional office space and meeting space. The hall was named for alumnus and longtime trustee Joe S. Mundy.

The Jesse H. and Mary Gibbs Jones Center, the residence-hall complex on the east side of campus, is collectively named in honor of Jesse H. and Mary Gibbs Jones, who established Houston Endowment Inc. The endowment contributed $5 million from 1982 through 1986 for the rehabilitation of campus residence halls and other facilities. Included in the Jones Center are Brown–Cody Hall, Clark Residence Hall, and Mabee Hall. Dedicated in 1997 and funded by a gift from The Brown Foundation, Inc., Brown–Cody Hall is named in honor of three alumnae: Florence Root Cody, Margaret Root Brown, and Alice Pratt Brown. Completed in 1962 and originally known as Kurth Residence Hall in honor of the late E. L. Kurth, an alumnus, benefactor, and longtime trustee of the University, Clark Hall was renamed in 2020 to recognize Ernest L. Clark, a 1969 alumnus and the first Black student to attend Southwestern. Mabee Hall, which opened in 1985, was made possible by a gift from the J. E. and L. E. Mabee Foundation. Mabee and Brown–Cody Halls serve as home to Southwestern's living–learning communities for first-year students. In fall 2023 work began on two new residence halls: a mixed-use first-year residence hall and new welcome center to be located east of Clark Hall, and a mixed-use second-year residence hall, to be located south of Ruter Hall.

Moody-Shearn Hall and Herman Brown Hall make up a residential complex located in the northwest area of campus. The halls were put into use in 1966 and feature exterior corridors and private courtyards. Moody-Shearn Hall was a gift of the Moody Foundation of Galveston, Texas, and is named in honor of Mr. John Shearn, an early graduate of Rutgersville College, and in honor of Mr. William Lewis Moody Jr. Herman Brown Hall was made possible by a matching grant from The Brown Foundation, Inc. of Houston, and the generous gifts of friends of Mr. Herman Brown, who served on the Board of Trustees for 20 years.

Martin Ruter Hall, a residence hall for men, was erected in 1955 in honor of Martin Ruter, a pioneering Methodist missionary and educator. The Central Texas, Southwest Texas and Texas Annual Conferences of the United Methodist Church provided funds for the building.

Located north of Ruter Hall is the Charline Hamblin McCombs Residential Center, an apartment complex for 96 students, dedicated in 2001. The center is named for alumna Charline Hamblin McCombs, who, along with her spouse, Red McCombs, has been a longtime supporter of student scholarships and building initiatives at Southwestern. The Grogan and Betty Lord Residential Center is an apartment complex for 200 students located on the northwest corner of campus. Dedicated in 1995, the Lord Center was made possible by contributions from members of the Lord family toward the enrichment of residential life at Southwestern. Grogan Lord served on the Board of Trustees from 1958 until his death in 2007. The facility includes the Sharon Lord Caskey Community Center featuring campus community meeting rooms and sorority chapter rooms.

The Dorothy Manning Lord Residential Center, dedicated in 2007, includes three residence halls: The Eddy C. Scurlock-Edward A. Clark Hall, The Genevieve Britt Caldwell Hall, and The Frank and Louise Britt Carvey Hall. These residence halls offer apartment-style living, with kitchens in each apartment, fully furnished rooms, a community room and recreation areas.

Snyder Athletic Field and the Robert K. Moses Jr. Field, on the west side of the campus, serve as outdoor playing fields. Robert Moses is a former trustee of the University. Recreational facilities on the east side of campus include the varsity soccer and lacrosse field, the Rockwell Family Baseball Field, the Taylor-Sanders Softball Field and the Marvin D. Henderson Sr. Tennis Courts. The baseball field is named for the late Henry M. Rockwell and his family. Carol Sanders Miller of Waco, Texas, gave the softball field in memory of her parents Carroll and Opal Taylor Sanders. Marvin D. Henderson Jr. endowed the tennis courts in honor of his father, a 1941 Southwestern graduate and accomplished tennis player. In 2013, Southwestern added two new practice fields, a 15,000 square-foot field house and a new track on the east side of campus to accommodate its growing athletics program.

West of the tennis courts is the Julie Puett Howry Center. Made possible by Nelson and Ruth Puett of Austin and named for their daughter, the late Julie Puett Howry, an alumna, the center is a popular meeting space for the campus community. South of the tennis courts is the Turner-Fleming House, home for the University's president and family. The home was a gift of the late Mr. and Mrs. P.E. Turner of Houston and was given to the University to honor former President and Mrs. Durwood Fleming.

PRIZES AND AWARDS

Faculty Awards

The Excellence in Academic Advising Award: Created to distinguish those academic advisors who have had a significant impact on the lives of their advisees, and to recognize the part that good advising plays in the educational process, this cash award is given to one advisor annually. Nominations are made by students.

The Southwestern University Teaching Awards: Recognizing quality teaching, these annual awards are nominated by students and are awarded one each to a full-time, tenure-track (but untenured) assistant or associate professor, and a tenured or full professor.

The William Carrington Finch Award: Made to a full-time faculty member for conspicuous accomplishment in furthering the aims of the University. This award is made possible by a gift to the endowment by Dr. Finch's wife, Lucy, and their two sons, Dr. William Tyree Finch and Dr. Richard Carrington Finch. Dr. William C. Finch '65 was the 11th President of Southwestern University.

Student Awards

The Accounting Excellence Award: Awarded annually to an outstanding senior student majoring in accounting. The award is given by the Texas Society of Certified Public Accountants.

Alpha Chi Award: Awarded annually to the student of the first-year class who makes the highest grade point average on a minimum of 30 credits of work.

Drusilla Huffmaster Anderson Prize in Music: Established in 2011 in memory of Drusilla Huffmaster Anderson by family and friends. Following an impressive musical career as a pianist, Ms. Anderson was appointed to the music faculty of Southwestern University as Artist-in-Residence in 1961. This award will be given to piano students, vocal students, or students studying other musical instruments as chosen by the Dean of the Sarofim School of Fine Arts.

The Annie Edwards Barcus Minga Speech Contest: Established by Dr. and Mrs. T. Herbert Minga to grant awards in persuasive speaking to honor Annie Edwards Barcus '22, a distinguished alumna and former Southwestern faculty member. Dr. Minga was a member of the University's Board of Trustees from 1965 to 1976.

Brooks Prize: Established in 2008 as a scholarship award to be presented each year to the two winners and the two runners-up of the Brooks Debate at Southwestern University.

The Goostree-Morgan-Springer Scholarship Fund: Established in 1983 by Mrs. Lacy W. Goostree to provide a scholarship award for one of the yearly recipients of the Goostree-Morgan-Springer Award.

The King Creativity Fund: Established in 1999 by W. Joseph King, PhD, '93, to support innovative and visionary projects of enrolled students across multiple disciplines, as well as students involved in extracurricular activities and off-campus projects. The Fund supports up to 20 projects in any given academic year. Grant recipients pursue individual and group projects aimed at pushing boundaries, stretching the mind, and paying tribute to the art of imagination. King Creativity Scholars present their work annually at the King Creativity Symposium.

The Laura Kuykendall Communication Award: This award was established by the late Miss Pearl A. Neas in memory of Miss Laura Kuykendall and is awarded to an outstanding communication student.

The Bob Lancaster Award: This award is given in the spring semester to the outstanding graduating majors in studio art and art history. It was established in memory of the late Robert L. Lancaster, sculptor and former chair of the Art Department. The selection of recipients of the award is made for studio art on the basis of a portfolio and general performances as judged by the studio art faculty, and art history on the basis of general performance and special projects as judged by the art history faculty. As a merit-based award, it is given only to those students who have met the departmental standards and, therefore, may not be awarded in some years.

The Frank Luksa Award: This award is made to a student in the field of sociology. It was established in 1974 in honor of Dr. Frank Luksa's retirement from long years of service as Chair of the Sociology Department.

Jason Magnon Prize: Established in 2016 by Dr. Robert Magnon, Dr. Karen Magnon, and Grant Magnon in memory of Jason Magnon '16 to provide a prize to students who have produced a written essay that demonstrates a technical mastery of writing. Prize-winning essays will be excellent examples of work that push the envelope and challenge commonly held ways of thinking and knowing. The award is administered by the Office of the Dean of the Faculty on an annual basis.

Mask and Wig Awards: Individual awards are made to students who give superior performances in Mask and Wig productions.

The Men's Panhellenic Association Award: This Association provides a scholarship award to the active fraternity chapter on the campus with the highest grade average each semester.

Walter Milton Potter Prize (a.k.a. Potter Prize): Established by W. Joseph King '93 to honor Dr. Walter Milton Potter, holder of the Lord Chair in Computer Science and academic advisor to Dr. King. The Potter Prize is awarded to the student who is selected as the overall most creative King Creativity Scholar for the given year.

The Henry E. Meyer Memorial Music Composition Award: Awarded annually to an outstanding music student from funds donated by Mr. and Mrs. R. Cochrane Penick.

Merriman Morton Business Leadership Award: Given by Dorothy Drummer on the occasion of Merriman Morton '63 being presented the Distinguished Alumnus Award on April 26, 1996, and awarded to an outstanding senior with a major in the Economics and Business Department who demonstrates business leadership and potential for success in the business community.

The David Knox Porter Award: Established in memory of the Rev. David Knox Porter, an alumnus of the University, by his daughters, Mrs. Meade F. Griffin and Mrs. Leslie Etter. This award is given annually to the outstanding pre-theological student.

Mary Mann Richardson Award: This award is given annually to a member of the pledge class of the Zeta Chapter of the Alpha Delta Pi Sorority. It was established in 1975 by Mr. and Mrs. Will Mann Richardson of Tyler, Texas.

The Barbara Fay Brown Schoenewolf Memorial Fund: Established by classmates and friends as a tribute to the vision, talent, and warmth of the late Barbara Fay Brown Schoenewolf '71. It is intended to award achievement in art at Southwestern.

The John Score Award in Philosophy: Given periodically to a senior majoring in philosophy whose work has been done with distinction. It was established in 1998 by the Religion and Philosophy Department in honor of Dr. John Score, who taught in the department in 1947 and again from 1955 until his death in 1995, and who was instrumental in establishing the program in philosophy during his tenure as chair of the department.

The Norman W. Spellmann Award in Religion: Given periodically to a senior majoring in religion whose work has been done with distinction. It was established in 1998 by the Religion and Philosophy Department in honor of Dr. Norman W. Spellmann on the occasion of his retirement after 38 years of teaching in the department.

The Vicente D. Villa Award in Biology: Awarded annually to the outstanding graduating biology student. The award is named for Professor Emeritus Vicente D. Villa in honor of his passion for biology and devotion to undergraduate education.

The Mary Lynn Webb Starnes Music Award: Given by Mrs. C.W. Webb of Elgin and the late Mr. Webb in memory of their daughter, Mary Lynn, to an outstanding senior "for proficiency in music performance, excellence in academic affairs and great promise in the field of music."

The Wall Street Journal Student Achievement Award: This award is given annually to the outstanding senior student graduating in the Economics and Business Department. Selection is made by the departmental faculty and is based on academic achievement in a specific field of the department.

The Women's Panhellenic of Georgetown Award: This group provides a scholarship award to the active sorority chapter on the campus, which has the highest grade average each semester.

Education Awards

William Nick Sikes Award: This annual award, given in honor of Nick Sikes, Education Department faculty member from 1974-2002, recognizes an outstanding student teacher for demonstrating commitment to and promotion of teaching for children and youth.

Judson S. Custer Outstanding Education Student Memorial Award: This annual award, given in honor of Judson S. Custer, Education Department faculty member from 1949-1989, honors an outstanding education student for both academic and teaching excellence.

Pre-service Educator of the Year: This award, given each year by the Education Deans of Independent Colleges and Universities of Texas (EDICUT), honors an outstanding pre-service teacher of the year at each member institution. The Education Department faculty selects the recipient.

Lisa Kenney Award: This monetary award honors the memory and dedication of Lisa Kenney, a Southwestern student who died while completing her program. The award is presented on an occasional basis to an outstanding postgraduate student who reflects Lisa's enthusiasm and potential for excellence in the teaching profession.

King-Trowbridge-Parks Award for Social Justice in Education: This award, in honor of Coretta Scott King, Dr. Martin Luther King Jr., Augustus Trowbridge, and Rosa Parks and their dedication to social justice and civil rights, is presented to a pre-service teacher whose knowledge, passion and actions support the ongoing struggle for social justice and civil rights through and within preschool-12th grade education.
