

HISTORY

Special Opportunities

Every fall, we invite a leading historian to come to campus. This prestigious visitor meets with majors and minors, leads a discussion in the Historiography course, and gives a public lecture. This provides our students a wonderful view into how other professional historians work within and advance their field.

Past Colloquium Visitors:

- 2014 Jay Winter of Yale University and his work, "100 Years On: Remembering the Great War, 1914-18."
- 2013 David Sowell, "Riots, Schools and Clinics: Writing the History of Medicine in Latin America"
- 2012 Todd Shepard, "The Algerian Revolution and the Sexual Revolution in France"
