Sociology Capstone & Honors Projects

Each December our sociology seniors present their capstone projects to the university community. Presentations are formal events and are typically held in the Prothro Room in the library. Each presentation lasts approximately 15 minutes and is followed by a brief Question and Answer session.

Fall 2025 sociology capstone presentations

Rylan Hastings, "More Than a Game: American Attitudes about How Sports can Strengthen and Fracture Unity"

Aris Morgan, "The Perception of The West Under Threat: American Attitudes on China"
