Funding

Southwestern University and the Sarofim School of Fine Arts offer a variety of funding options for high-impact learning experiences. For Theatre major-related pursuits, students may apply for a Sarofim Travel Grant of up to $700 that can be utilized once per year for the entirety of their time at Southwestern. Specific study abroad experiences have previously been funded by generous donors, and programs like the London Semester Abroad can be supported by a student's general tuition scholarships and financial aid. Students needing additional funding may also apply for Paideia scholarships, as well as scholarships offered through the Office of Intercultural Learning (contact). With ample financial support available, every student has the opportunity to excel in the high-impact programs that call to them!
