VOICE AND MOVEMENT

This is a practical, activity-based course designed to help students speak and move with ease and freedom. Voice work will focus on improving resonance and enunciation and will include work on stage dialects. Movement work will focus on body alignment and spatial awareness.

FUNDAMENTALS OF ACTING

This course is designed to introduce students to the processes of acting, including developing clear characters, analyzing scripts, exploring dramatic action and conflict and making bold choices in the development of scenes and monologues. Students will work on basic acting skills including movement, voice, and improvisation. Substantial written and performance work is required.

THEATRE PERFORMANCE PRACTICUM

Main-stage productions are open to all University students. One credit is granted for each production. This course may be repeated for up to four credits. Prerequisite: Must be cast in a role in a main-stage production. For non-major students only.

ALEXANDER TECHNIQUE

The Alexander Technique is a body alignment and movement technique that focuses on alignment of the spine and skeleton. When the spine and skeleton come into alignment, muscles soften, tension releases, coordination improves, and the body works more efficiently. This activity-based course focuses on group and private work with the

THEATRE DANCE

Preparation and execution of basic movement exercises, jazz, tap and modern dance and their application to choreography for musical theatre. Also Dance 79-414.

ACTING: REALISM

This course investigates the analysis and performance of scenes from realistic plays. Students engage in activities designed to explore advanced techniques for personalizing and physicalizing characters, playing actions and objectives, and engaging in rigorous script analysis.

DEPARTURES FROM REALISM

Study and practice of 20th and 21st-century acting techniques through research, analysis, work and performance.

MUSICAL THEATRE WORKSHOP

This course focuses on the intensive practical aspects of scene-and-song work in the repertory of popular musical theatre genres, paying particular attention to the skills needed as an actor to interpret lyrics and text within the structure of a musical play. While this course focuses on the performative elements of acting in a musical, considerable reading and critical analysis will also be required. May be repeated for credit.

THEATRE FOR SOCIAL CHANGE: PRACTICE AND PERFORMANCE

This course explores theatre as a political, activist, problem solving, educational and aesthetic tool. Students will learn to develop interactive performances that can be used to effect social change in a wide variety of community settings.

FEMINISM AND PERFORMANCE

A course focusing on the ways culture has constructed the performance of gender on stage, in every-day life and in the media. Also Communication Studies 75-524 and Feminist Studies 04-724. (FAP) (WA)

ACTING: POETIC LANGUAGE

required.

DIRECTING FOR THE THEATRE

Principles and practices of directing. Includes detailed analysis of the playscript and directing of laboratory or workshop productions.

ADVANCED DIRECTING

This course will explore how a director transforms personal vision into social and aesthetic meaning in a theatrical event. Through lecture, discussion and in-class exercises, the course will examine how a director uses an in-depth approach to script analysis with a special emphasis on the directors use of theatrical space and conventions to project a point of view.
