NATIVE SPEAKERS

The beginning level Spanish course sequence fulfills SU's Language and Culture requirement.

- Spanish 1 is offered fall, spring, and summer term.
- Spanish 2 and 3 are offered fall, spring, summer term, and in a summer study abroad program.

A placement test taken before beginning coursework at Southwestern helps determine which level in the language sequence will provide the appropriate challenge when getting started. Students who have not placed out of Southwestern's third semester language proficiency requirement must begin language study at the level of placement, and take the next courses from -144, -154 and -164 sequentially. Students must earn a grade of C- or better to continue within this sequence.

Introduction to the language. Skills development in listening, speaking, writing, reading and cultural study. Contingent on placement exam results and language background. (Fall, Spring)

SPA15-154 Spanish II: Lang & Culture

Skills development in listening, speaking, writing, reading and cultural study. Also offered as part of SU's summer study abroad program . Prerequisite: Spanish 15-144 or equivalent placement. (Fall, Spring, Summer)

SPA15-164 Spanish III: Lang & Culture

Intermediate course on Spanish language and culture with emphasis on listening, speaking, reading and writing. Continued practice in the target language. Also offered as part of SU's summer study abroad program. Prerequisite: Spanish 15-154 or equivalent placement. An exit interview/examination is required to satisfy course requirements. (Fall, Spring, Summer)
